The year 1963 was a year of progress for St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Hugh R. Percy told members of the parish at the annual meeting of the church held in the parish hall.

Dividing his annual report into three parts, the Rev. Mr. Percy gave an accounting of the stewardship of the parish, reports on the impact of the church on the community, and told of the spiritual health of the congregation.

He was particularly pleased, he told those at the meeting, with the contributions to the parish by the Unified Group, Episcopal Church Women.

"THEY HAVE contributed materially to the church's welfare and have become increasingly aware that all projects and undertakings are done to enhance Christ's Kingdom and St. Andrew's role in that task," he said.

Speaking on the church's role in the community, the Rev. Mr. Percy reported that more than $10,000 had been allocated by the church and its organizations for programs outside the parish during 1963.

"When we fail in our outreach, we begin to fail as a church," the rector said.

REPORTS delivered by representatives of church organizations referred to the many programs which had accounted for the outreach — ranging from the Episcopal Church's worldwide mission programs to the shipment of clothing to Utah Indian families.

Reporting on the spiritual health of the parish, Father Percy expressed a "deep satisfaction" in the work of the parish. He reported, as one of the guidelines, that 77 candidates had been confirmed during 1963 and that St. Andrew's stood third in the Diocese of Los Angeles in the number of confirmations during the past five years.

Richard A. Sullivant, M.D., was named senior warden of the church during the annual business meeting. Dr. Sullivant, who had completed a three-year term on the vestry last year, was returned to a three-year term by a vote of the congregation.

OTHER VESTRYMEN elected included William Ford, Lt. Col. Charles Gandy Jr., Jack Hager, Leslie Hardy, Lt. Col. Fred Harnisch, Don Henrick and Continuing vestrymen include Charles Goodale, George Post, and James R. Wilkes, each with one year to serve; and Thomas T. Evans, Gordon Haner, Neil Silence, and Robert Tolson, each with two years to serve.

James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles, was the celebrant of the mass at the church attended by 2500 society members from the Los Angeles diocese.

Captain Peter F. Hagen, commander of the Van Nuys division of the Los Angeles Police Department, spoke on "Responsibility of Holy Name Men in Law and Order."

The Nativity Church delegation, led by the Rev. John P. Cremins, pastor, and J. T. Conlan, Leo Cleer, Bob Katorke, Don Krauser, Larry Poeske, and Ross Haley.
