

Carson High Sale Slated

Carson High School will distribute more than 1,100 cases of chocolate bars to students tomorrow. The bars will be sold by students to raise student body funds.

The chocolate sale will last until March 10. Each student will receive 12 packs of chocolate bars, to be sold at 60 cents each.

Each pack comes in its own carrying case and contains 12 bars. More than 26,500 bars will be placed on sale.

Funds will be used to support athletic, music, and other student body needs, according to Bernard Donahue, principal of the school.

'Friend' Topic Of Unity Sermon

Emma M. Muffley, minister of the Unity Church, will conduct a service on "A True Friend" Sunday at 10:45 a.m. at the Walteria Park Building, 3855 W. 242nd St.

Classes for children are conducted at the same hour. Further information is available at 320-4871.

Candidates Open Guns In Battle for Council

Charges of whitewash and corruption marked the opening guns of the campaign for City Council seats this week as two of the eighteen candidates in the race issued blasts at the incumbent councilmen.

John F. Mulvihill, former member of the Planning Commission, and a resident of Torrance for more than a decade, opened his campaign for one of the three seats at stake in the April 14 election with what he called "a blast at the 'obvious corruption' in the current administration and a pledge to help return Torrance to its All-America status."

MULVIHILL aimed his opening guns at the City Council "for suppressing the facts from the voters by refusing to make public the Attorney General's extensive report on Torrance city government." He charged that councilmen do not want the report made public.

The candidate called for a three-point program to "return the voice of government to the people."

"First, I support a full financial disclosure law for all councilmen. This would put the city government back into the fish bowl so that shady deals by councilmen would be impossible."

"SECOND, we need an advisory citizen's police commission in Torrance to assure that the police department is operating in the interests of the citizenry."

"And third, I strongly favor councilmanic districts so that representation is as close to the individual voter as possible. The voters simply have to be closer to their councilmen so that they can hold the reins on runaway mavericks who would operate as if they have perfect freedom to ignore voter wishes."

TAKING UP the "whitewash" banner was David K.

Lyman, who charged that "not one man in a high place in Torrance city government stood up and demanded that the city find out and correct whatever might be wrong," when reports of alleged irregularities in the city were being made.

INSTEAD of checking into the reports that something was wrong in Torrance, "a vitriolic and spiteful charge was leveled at the District Attorney," Lyman said, a charge that the District Attorney "was motivated by improper and devious considerations of the darkest nature."

"The present administration of our city continually attempted to hinder and impede the investigations of both the attorney general's and the district attorney's offices by making charges of improper conduct motivated by political considerations," Lyman said. "The city administration has never put forth one piece of evidence or suggestion that would back up their charges," he added.

Board Moves To Develop Parking Lot

A contract for $71,340 was awarded by the Board of Supervisors this week for development of parking facilities at Torrance Beach.

The contract was awarded to the H. E. Baker Construction Co., low bidder among the seven bids received.

The parking lot will be developed from Paseo de la Concha to the existing parking lot on the beach side of Paseo de la Playa. Twenty-two parcels are involved. Land acquisition has progressed to the point where the county has clear title to 12 of the parcels, according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The contract calls for improvements in drainage facilities, installation of sprinkler systems and public walkways, and parking space for 340 additional cars.

City Wants Block Wall On Highway

Torrance has asked the State Division of Highways to install retaining walls on Pacific Coast Highway between Roberts Road and Calle Mayor.

In a letter to Assemblymen Charles E. Chapel and Vincent Thomas, acting city manager Ed Ferraro said the city would install sidewalks on both sides of the highway in the block-long area.

The letter, ordered by the City Council, said the sidewalks are necessary to provide a safe walkway for students going to South High school. Homeowners, PTA members, and school officials have expressed great concern because of the danger to students on their way to school.

Gulf Oil Awards Marymount Grant

Marymount College has been awarded a cash grant for unrestricted use from the Gulf Oil Corp.

It was one of some 692 awards, totalling $500,000, that Gulf will distribute this year as direct, unrestricted grants to universities and colleges under its aid-to-education program.

...Dominguez

THE CITIZEN'S group intends to circulate petitions shortly and hopes to get cooperation from industrial and commercial concerns in the area. Past attempts to incorporate have largely been defeated by industry.

Art Reeves, secretary of the Industry Committee, said the group has discussed the possibility of incorporation, but no decision has been made. "We are talking about it now," Reeves said.

If the bid for incorporation is successful, it would create the largest city in the southwest region. The area included is approximately 25 square miles. More than 61,000 persons live in the area, making it the second most populous area in the southwestern part of the county.

R. B. KEITH, a Carson realtor who served as chairman of the committee which sought to incorporate Carson last year, said he would continue to work for incorporation. "The area cannot remain as county territory for long," Keith told THE HERALD this week.

The Carson area was left out of the new bid because state law requires a waiting period of one year before a new petition can be filed. The area is much like the hole in a doughnut.

In a related matter, the Regional Planning Commission still has not ruled on a petition for a change of zone filed by the Macco Realty Co. Macco has asked for residential zoning for a 695-acre parcel within the proposed area of annexation to Long Beach. The case has been held for further study by the planning commission.

...Robbery

REACHING THE ticket cage door, he yanked it open and showed a revolver to the theater usher and told him to "put all the money in the bag."

He held out a crumpled sack for the money, and watched as Van Duivenbode put in $177 from the theater till.

The gunman also demanded the usher's wallet, but did not press the demand when the victim protested that he had no money.

Van Duivenbode was forced out of the booth and told to walk west away from the theater.

"Just keep walking, don't make me shoot you," the gunman warned in what the victim described as "a foreign accent."

Hearing the bandit running toward Van Ness Avenue to the east, the usher returned and called police.

IF IT'S TOO QUIET—TURN ON THE RADIO

Some of the finest comments that come to us from owners of 1964 Cadillacs concern the car's extraordinary quietness of operation.

A Cadillac owner remains comfortably insulated from the distraction and din of the heaviest midtown traffic. And we think that this remarkable characteristic tells a great deal about the quality and goodness of this extraordinary new Cadillac creation.

First of all, it indicates the car's high level of craftsmanship. Every 1964 Cadillac, in fact, now undergoes more than 1400 separate inspections.

It indicates, too, how Cadillac's combination of functional styling, scientific soundproofing and advanced new suspension have reduced to an almost unbelievable degree the sounds normally associated with travel.

And, even more importantly, it speaks of the car's great engineering. Cadillac's dynamic new engine operates with flawless precision, despite its record power. Its new transmissions, both the Hydra-Matic and the Turbo Hydra-Matic, translate that power into smooth, hushed response . . . and combined with exclusive True-Center drive line, virtually eliminate vibration.

If you have not yet driven a 1964 Cadillac, you will find it a most revealing experience. Your dealer will have one ready any time that's convenient. Just let the car's amazing quiet do the talking.
