

WESTERN AVENUE CRASH . . . Gerald Francis Pizer, 46, of 1439 W. 221st St., escaped with minor injuries about 8 a.m. Monday when his sedan was involved in a collision with the truck, left, driven by Cruz Tavarez Campos, 24, Reseda, who also suffered minor injuries. Both were taken to Torrance Memorial Hospital. The impact pushed the sedan across the southwest corner of Western Avenue and 220th Street, knocking down a traffic signal and moving a wooden pole. Philharmonic Extends Auditions to March 6

The California Junior Philharmonic Orchestra will hold auditions for teen-age musicians to March 6, according to Ernst Katz, conductor. Young musicians between the ages of 12 and 19, playing violins, violas, cellos, basses, woodwinds, brasses and percussion instruments are eligible to try-out. Appointments may be made at 276-5923. "During the extension of our 1964 try-outs we are making a special call for boys and girls playing cellos, string-basses and French horns," said conductor Katz. "No preparations are necessary to audition, only an ability to sight read orchestra music is needed." Dedicated to "Give Youth a Chance to be Heard," the orchestra is a non-commercial all-youth symphony with no audition fees or membership charges.

Vermont Avenue Signals Placed Into Operation

New traffic signals, recently installed at 223rd Street and Vermont Avenue, are now in operation. The signals were installed as part of other improvements in the intersection. The project was done by Seymour Electric Co. Other improvements in the intersection include pedestrian crossing signals, impact detectors, and median signals.
