(Continued from Page 17) the ring back to her fiancé four times since August. Whenever they have an argument, she throws the ring in his face. By the time he gets home his phone is ringing. She is sorry and wants him to bring the ring right back.

The last time she pulled this he refused to patch things up. He took out another girl. Mae was waiting on his porch when he got home at 12:30 a.m. He said he was through with her for good so she went on a hunger strike and didn't eat for three days. Her mother called and insisted the fellow "save her life."

They are back together again and the wedding date is set for April. As the boy's mother I'd like your opinion.

—JD

Dear JD: That son of yours should have quit when he was ahead. A marriage based on emotional blackmail cannot succeed.

I predict he'll be getting the ring back at some point between now and April. If he is smart he'll return it to the jeweler and get whatever he can for it.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

When your baby begins to creep he may rebel a bit at the playpen but there will still be times when you'll want baby to stay put. How to keep your scoot-about happy after he's had a taste of freedom? These tips may be helpful:

- Time element. If you reserve pen times for baby's most contented times, he probably won't resent it.
- Toy trickery. A few different toys for each session help keep baby's "housing development" an interesting place to come home to. A covered saucerpan with a Gerber Teething Biscuit inside adds a nice surprise.
- Position counts. By placing the pen where baby can watch your comings and goings, he won't feel neglected.

Meat of the matter. A baby with crawl privileges needs protein to help develop those muscles he's using more and more. Gerber Strained Meats provide protein galore in the smoothest form that ever summoned up a baby's smile.

Made from special cuts selected by Armour, these quality meats are low in fat for easy digestibility . . . great on true-meat flavors for ready acceptability. 9 varieties . . . 5 junior meats for tots with teeth.

Safety measures for fourwalkers. Creepers make a beeline for bright objects so be sure to scan the floor for pins, buttons, etc. Iron and toaster cords should not be left a-dangle. Floor fans or heaters are a hazard.

Sunny-side up for creepers, lap-sitters or high-chair heroes and heroines. Gerber Strained Egg Yolks are bright as a splash of sunshine . . . have a delicate, fresh-egg flavor and creamy, custard-like texture that's hard to beat for downright delightful eating. As for nourishment, Gerber Egg Yolks are high in vitamin A, rich in iron and a good source of protein. Gerber's Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.
