

ALL SET FOR THE SHOW . . . Las Vecinas club members are busy completing plans for their annual fashion benefit which will be held this year in the Regency room at the Airport Marina Hotel. Featured will be a young California designer Bud Kilpatrick. Talking over ticket sales and reservations are from left, standing, Mmes. Don Malone and Lee Flanagan, committee members; seated, Mmes. William McDonald, recording secretary; and Ray Henderson, treasurer. (Herald Photo)

Club's Major Fund-Raising Event

Young California Designer Will Be Featured at Las Vecinas Show

Las Vecinas Women's Club will present its annual fashion show luncheon, at the Airport Marina Hotel in the Regency Room, Thursday, March 19. The social hour will begin at 11:30 a.m. followed by luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

All costumes modeled in the show will be originals designed by Mr. Bud Kilpatrick, one of the youngest award-winning designers from California. His two closest associates are his administrative and sales director, Ephraim Feinburg, and his fashion coordinator and model, lovely "Jimme O'Neil." The triumvirate works together on selecting a collection's worth from the seemingly endless flow of Kilpatrick's ideas, in planning the showings and in making their presentations in New York each season.

Mr. Kilpatrick introduces the "Swing Silhouette," which spreads in a gay flare beneath a sober tube or tunic body. The Tour Jacket, long and slim, tops most of his suits and dresses. Many of the jackets are belted at the hipbone. The new lightness and softness of fabrics, pointing far away from bulk of recent seasons, is endorsed by Kilpatrick; his wools are soft and flat with a pleasingly downy touch. He has a number of what he calls "dry tweeds" with no hint of oiliness. He combines firm linen with light silk surah. His prints are full of fool-the-eye fantasy—Tudor fringes taken from a portrait of Queen Elizabeth I, and a Mille Fiori print of prim rows of single flowers placed like polka dots. A single print of two color combinations is frequently used in a dress.

Mrs. Donald V. Edwards, ways and means chairman for Las Vecinas, will be in charge of the fashion luncheon. She will be assisted by other chairmen Mrs. John V. Woods, tickets; Hugh W. Sutherland, hostesses; James Jordan, decorations; Evelyn Warden, ad book; Paul Coty, reservations; Robert Hunt, program cover; and MacDonald Lowe, table favors.

The fashion show luncheon is one of the main fund-raising events of the year to support the philanthropic projects of Las Vecinas. Tickets may be purchased by calling Mrs. Paul Coty.

FASHIONS AND FLOWERS . . . Against a background of colorful spring blossoms in the Crystal room at the Palms on the evening of March 11, Torrance Chapter City of Hope will present a parade of bright new spring fashions. Here Mrs. Henry Backlund, left, models a new spring print suit as she and Mrs. Edward Schwartz of the Levy Dept. Store select the fashions to be shown. Special guest will be Louis Tabak, past president of City of Hope and a well known couturier. (Herald Photo)

TORRANCE HERALD

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 5, 1964

17

YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

Mothers of Twins Event

Fashion Benefit Set For St. Patrick Day

Leprechauns, "the little people," in duplicate and triplicate, will abound in high fashion on St. Patrick's night March 17, when the South Bay Mothers of Twins club stages its annual fashion show. "Designs in Dublin Time" will be the theme of the fashion event to be held in a private club in San Pedro beginning at 7 p.m.

Highlight of the evening will be 14 sets of twins and one set of triplets modeling the latest spring fashions from a children's shop.

The show will open with twins boys, dressed as leprechauns, carrying a gold chest containing the treasure to be given as the grand award.

Children modeling the new 1964 spring fashions, will include Karey and Kim Cramer, Cheryl and Craig Dunn, Denise and Dennis de Castro, Nancy and Ricky Kimmel, Jim and Jeff Edwards, Joseph and Thomas Dube, Melinda and Heide Garret, Pat, Paul, Jamie and Kevin McKean, Chris and Kitty Meier, Scott and Doug Smith, Jennifer and Susan Sowell, Linda and Thomas Steinbrecher, Sherie and Caryl Myer, Daniel, David and DeWayne Watson.

Members of the Twins club, who will model fashions for the busy mother will be Mmes. Gordon Anderson, John Adams, Robert Jackson, James Husereau, Guy Lucas, Ron Strawn, Chuck Luttrell, Thomas Bannon, Patrick Stewart and Ron Eisman.

The 325 guests expected to attend the show will be greeted by the past presidents of the Mothers of Twins Club, who will serve as hostesses. They are Mmes. John Adams, Glenn Smith and Robert Campbell.

Mrs. Andrew Meier, president, announces that the proceeds from the show will go to the Southwest Assn. for Retarded Children in Torrance.

Anyone desiring information regarding membership may call Mrs. James Husereau of Torrance.

FASHIONS IN TRIPPLICATE . . . The Watson triplets will be among the parade of twins and triplets modeling new fashions for children at the Mothers of Twins Club fashion benefit on St. Patrick's Day. Pictured are the triplets, DeWayne, Daniel and David Watson with Mrs. Thomas Bannon, left, and Mrs. Chuck Luttrell. Proceeds from the show will go to the Southwest Association for Retarded Children. (Herald Photo)

Easter Bonnets for Sale

St. Catherine Women To Present Hat Show

Exclusive first run production of 1964, "Hats and Bags" by Nancy Richards, will be presented by the members of St. Catherine Labour Women's Council. The press party for this engagement will be held Tuesday, March 10, at 8 p.m. in the parish hall at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance.

Approximately 400 spring hats and accessories for all occasions will be featured. One price will prevail for all hats and bags.

General chairman of the event is Mrs. Nick Bachis. Assisting her will be Mmes. Lee Haynes, Larry Achen, Irvin Gleason, Keith Williams, Edward Price, Charles Gib-

Rummage Sale Slated March 13

St. Theresa Guild of the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita will hold its semi-annual rummage sale at the parish hall, 255th and Eshelman on March 13. Doors will open at 9 a.m. on an exceptional array of bargain items. The public is invited to attend.

bon, Edward Vincent, and Al Swanson.

Acting as salesladies for the event will be Mmes. Dale Sutton, David Lardizabel, George Pleick, Don Moreau, Harold Scott and Ray Gordon.

Admission is free and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Bachis invites all members and their friends to take advantage of the event to choose an Easter bonnet.

Relatives Visit R. G. Eatoughs

Mr. and Mrs. Richard George Eatough, 426 Calle de Arboles have as their houseguests Mrs. Eatough's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball A. Carter of Provo, Utah; their daughter, Mrs. Francine Molenaar and daughter, Julie Ann of Brigham City, Utah, who will spend several weeks here.

Last weekend the family group was joined by the Eatough's son George Robert Eatough who is serving with the United States Navy stationed in San Francisco aboard the USS Hancock. George was on a 72 hour leave.

That Wonderful Look

City of Hope Fashion Show Slated March 11

"That Wonderful Look" is the theme of the fashion show to be staged by the Torrance Chapter City of Hope on Wednesday March 11 in the Crystal Room of the Palms restaurant, 1925 Carson St., Torrance. A social hour will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. with the fashion showing slated for 8:30 p.m.

Louis Tabak, past president of the City of Hope, and well-known couturier will be guest of honor.

Along with the Tabak collection, fashions from the Sam Levy Dept. store will be shown under the supervision of Mrs. Ella Schwartz. Sylvia Miller will do the commentary.

A profusion of spring flowers will form a colorful background for the parade of fashions.

Serving as models will be Mmes. William Boswell, Paul Wierk, Henry Backlund, Bert Lynn, president of the chapter, and Gertrude Potrecz.

Club Enjoys Dinner Party

Mrs. Charles Edwards entertained her club Wednesday evening at her home, 5513 Michele Dr.

Guests enjoyed champagne punch, after which a Mexican dinner was served.

The after-dinner hours were spent playing bridge.

Mrs. Edwards' guests were Mmes. Gayle Lowder, Margaret Zackan, Beverly Benington, Virginia Tilling, Dorothy Putzel, Margaret Hamm, Julia Hammond.

Others were Mmes. Vern McKay, Sue Ames, Marcia Fraleigh and Monie Ganske.

Rummage Sale

Narbonne High PTA will hold a rummage sale March 6 at 10 a.m. on the corner of Lomita Blvd. and Woodward Ave. Anyone with rummage to donate is asked to call Mrs. Kenneth Bridges. The public is invited to attend the sale.

UNDER FIRE

Dear Under: Did your sister-in-law invent the name and have it copyrighted? If so, she's the first one I ever heard of who managed it. Tell her to stop making herself look ridiculous, and let her know that when she has a son she can use the same name and you won't mind a bit.

Dear Ann Landers: Yesterday afternoon I entertained our club, which is two tables of canasta. This group has been meeting regularly for 12 years.

Halfway through the creamed chicken Mrs. C. gave a shriek that could have been heard in Coral Gables. "Oh, my Lord," she yelled, "A RAT!" I looked up and saw a tiny grey mouse scampering across the dining room floor. It couldn't have been more than two inches long.

The girls became panicky. Mrs. C. gasped, "I'm fainting" and had to have a cold washcloth for her head. Two women climbed upon their chairs. In less than three seconds the frightened little mouse had disappeared but my luncheon was ruined.

I have a sneaking suspicion Mrs. C. did this to humiliate me. I feel like resigning from the club. What is your opinion? — ON TRANQUILIZERS

Dear On: Mrs. C's hysterical reaction probably dates back to her childhood. I doubt that she intended to humiliate you. It would have been far better, of course, if (Continued on Page 18)

HI-FASHION CHAPEAUX . . . Straws, malines, flowers, and ribbons created into elegant Easter bonnets bring happy smiles to Mrs. Charles Gibbon of Hawthorne and Mrs. Nick Bachis, Torrance, as they prepare for the Hat and Bag show to be presented by the St. Catherine Labour Women's Council on March 10 at the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. Mrs. Bachis is serving as general chairman. (James Weber Photo)

PORTRAITS OF FASHION . . . Flower carts and fashion dolls will decorate the Elks Club in Redondo Beach on Thursday, March 12, when the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club stages its sixth annual fashion luncheon. In this fashion portrait are left, Mrs. Frank Gardiner and Mrs. Jerry Duerre. There will be door prizes and entertainment. Luncheon will be served at 12:15 followed by the fashion parade. (Herald Photo)