JAMES LEGGETT

New Manager Announced for Telephone Co. in Torrance

Pacific Telephone's new Torrance manager is James P. Leggett. He replaces Richard S. (Dick) Pyle who was appointed manager of the company's Hawthorne and El Segundo public offices after 11 years here.

Leggett comes to Torrance from an assignment as business office manager at 3233 W. Vernon Ave. in Los Angeles. Starting work as a mail boy in 1942, he moved up to jobs as assistant manager in Hawthorne and Inglewood and as a sales supervisor for major Los Angeles accounts.

He and his wife Peggy live at 11231 Martha Ann Drive in Roosmoor, Orange County, with their three children, Shari, 4, Tami, 7, and Cynthia, 9.

A native of Los Angeles, Leggett saw submarine duty in the Atlantic and Pacific during World War II.

Pyle, who lives at 22311 Ocean Ave. with his wife, Lorraine, is a director and past president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Torrance City Youth Welfare Commission, the Bank of America Advisory Board and the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

Teachers at Carson High Are Students

By WENDELL LEE Carson High School

Three Carson High teachers are also students! The teachers, students at the University of Southern California, are training for their regular teaching credentials by teaching at Carson High this semester.

Mrs. Sharon Mackery, an English teacher, James Abe, who teaches social studies, and Miss Mary Smith, a library assistant, will be graded according to their success in the classroom.

The program is part of the teacher training program conducted at the University of Southern California in cooperation with the Los Angeles City Schools.

Hospital Zone

Request Denied

The Regional Planning Commission this week denied a petition by Mark Stone and Associates for a zone exception in the Carson Zoned District. The firm had sought an exception to an M-1 zone at 22116 S. Dolores St., for construction of a 152-bed convalescent hospital.
