

Spring Dryer Contest Will Close Soon

Only a few days remain in which local residents may register for a contest which will give six Southland couples a free vacation in Mexico.

The contest, part of the annual Spring gas dryer campaign, will close March 29. All contestants have only to visit any participating dealer and fill out the short registration blank. No purchase is necessary. Winners will be drawn at the conclusion of the contest.

Prizes include a week-long vacation in Mexico City and all travel accommodations. The contest is jointly sponsored by the dealers and the Southern California Gas Co.

Army PFC William J. Panick II, 21, whose parents live at 5323 Binedwald, was assigned to the 7th Infantry Division in Korea, Feb. 26.

Panick, last stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., is now a clerk-typist in the division's 127th Signal Battalion.

He was graduated from Bishop Montgomery High School in 1961 and entered the Army in June of that year.

The delegation will be accompanied by the GAA sponsors Doris Avis and Marguerite Flint-Smith.

SGT. ROY BILLINGS New Commission

Sgt. Billings Assigned to Fort Lewis

S/Sgt. Roy H. Billings, a radar operator, has been commissioned as a flying warrant officer in the U. S. Army. Billings was one of 26 men selected from 827 western area applications.

He will be assigned to the 4th Aviation Battalion at Fort Lewis, Wash. He expects to pilot the HU1A Iroquois at Fort Lewis.

Sgt. Billings holds a commercial flying license and a flying instructor's license. He also is a veteran of World War II.

The son of R. W. Billings of Torrance, the sergeant is married. He is the father of four children, Roy, 8; Sharon Ann, 7; Christopher, 4; and Lance, 1.

The cut-off date for the Korean G. I. Bill is Jan. 31, 1965. The Los Angeles County Service Office advises veterans to arrange their study programs to meet the expiration date. G. I. Bill benefits will not be paid after that date.
