MRS. DALE T. BLICKENDERFER
... Holiday Bride
(Portrait by Seeman)

Couple Wed in Candlelight Church Ceremony Feb. 22

Walteria Assembly of God Church was the setting for the six o'clock marriage ceremony on Feb. 22, when Miss Velma Lavonda Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ade Huggins, 1619 W. 214th St., Torrance, exchanged her marriage promises with Dale T. Blickenderfer of Vacaville.

As the 150 guests assembled, Mrs. Floyd Roberts, at the organ, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Roy Bergon, who sang "Til the End of Time" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Huggins escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of Belgium lace fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt which draped into a chapel train. A princess crown of crystals and pearls secured the illusion veil. The bride carried a small white Bible topped by a bouquet of butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Farrell Henderson, in a cranberry satin brocade gown, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jim Wiesser, Misses Eileen Huggins and Jeanne Olds. Their gowns were of pink satin brocade and all of the attendants carried pink carnations.

Stephanie Morrison, in cranberry satin and pink nylon, was the flower girl. Candle-lighters, Teresa and Karlene Koch, wore pink taffeta sheaths.

Larry Christensen stood as best man and ushers were Farrell Henderson, Tom Tapp and Danny Olds.

Rev. O. W. Fish performed the candlelight marriage rites.

At the reception following, Miss Paulette Blickenderfer was in charge of the bride's book.

The new address of the bridal couple is 21325 S. Harvard, Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and her husband was graduated from Washington High School in Ohio.

(Continued from Page 27) high school diploma. You can take a correspondence course while in the Service and be a high school graduate when you get out. And while you're in the Service you can sign up for special training which will give you a head start when you enter trade school — if that's what you decide on.

The important thing is DON'T WASTE TIME. Equip yourself, through education, to make a living. The demand now and in the future is only for the trained and the skilled. Be among them.

Dear Ann Landers, I'm very much in love with a man who is deeply in love with me. I know we could have a beautiful life together. My family is violently opposed to Ty because he is many years my senior and has been married and divorced four times. I agree his record is not good, but I am the only woman who has ever given him unselfish love and understanding.

Fellows my age are immature and boring. I am willing to face the wrath of my family and the public censure that will surely follow if I marry Ty. I know we can make it. Do you think we have a chance? —L.A. LOVE

Dear L. A.: You don't want advice, you want approval — and you rattled the wrong cage, Buttercup.

Often I learn more about a situation from the facts omitted than from the facts stated. You avoided telling me your age or his, which leads me to suspect you two are at least a generation apart. You failed to mention whether Ty has children. I'll bet he has a few living souvenirs from at least three out of four of those marriages — some probably older than you. And I'll bet, too, that if you marry this aging Romeo, within two years you will be looking for a lawyer and Ty will be looking for his sixth.

Who'd ever think a car 213 inches long, 79 inches wide, 6 passengers roomy and Trophy V-8 powerful could cost so little?

Pontiac people.

You'll never guess what else Pontiac people get for their money in Catalinas. Pontiac styling? Well, obviously. Curve-uncurving Wide-Track? Of course. A Trophy V-8 that thrives on regular gas, if they prefer? No charge. Lots more that could cost extra, but doesn't? Sure, electric wipers and dual visors and foam-cushioned front seats. If you drove a Catalina, you'd feel like a Pontiac person. Smog.
