Dodgers Join Drive To Recruit New Scouts

Los Angeles' world champion Dodgers have joined the Boy Scouts!

The Dodgers joined with the Los Angeles Area Council of the Boy Scouts in a scout recruiting campaign. The Boy Scouts are looking for boys 8 to 18. With Dodger president Walter O'Malley as membership drive chairman, the Dodgers have offered every new scout a free ticket to the Dodger-New York Mets game on May 19.

Every Cub Scout, Boy Scout, or Explorer who brings a buddy into scouting will get a free ticket, too.

IN ADDITION to the tickets, the Dodgers are now preparing some 60 autographed baseballs which will be given to the top 60 Scout recruiters.

The Dodgers also have arranged for a clinic to be held for 100 scouts. The baseball champs will give pointers in batting, pitching, and fielding, and answer questions about baseball.

The top three recruiters in the Los Angeles area Council will win special prizes — the right to be the Dodger bat boy for a day, according to assistant manager A. E. Patterson.

Boys who would like to join scouting should contact their nearest troop or call the Council Office at DU 5-3461.
