Harbor United Way Honors Top Volunteers, Backers

Top campaign volunteers and generous givers shared honors Thursday night at the first annual meeting of Harbor Area United Way, held at the Jump 'N Jack, Torrance.

Stan Williamson, plant manager at Shell Chemical and 1963 campaign chairman, presented trophies to volunteers and plaques to employ groups that conducted the best United Way campaigns within their firms.

Trophy winners were: Frode B. Kilstofte trophy, Wilmington Advance Gifts, George Sanchez, Wilmington Lions; Local 905, Retail Clerks Business Trophy, Harbor Area YWCA, South Bay, Mrs. Carolyn Terhune, San Pedro; and the Spinak Commerce and Industry Trophy, Dr. Sidney Rooth, Gardena.

Also presented were the James Visceglia City Chairman Trophy, Max Weinberg, City chairman, Gardena; Robinson Residential Unit Trophy, Mrs. Robert Wattenbarger, Rolling Hills; and the Ira Kaye Organizational Trophy, Walter Scheppmann, city chairman, Harbor City-Lomita.

THE HIGHEST United Way honor to employ groups—the gold award—was earned by Western Concrete Structures Co., Inc., employees. Jerry Hill served as employ chairman at the Gardena firm.

The next highest award—silver—was presented to the following Harbor Area employe givers: Diamond Perforated Metals Co., Gardena. Mrs. Kathleen Berger, chairman; Gilbert C. Van Camp Insurance Agency, Inc., San Pedro, Miss Joanne Bezich, chairman; General Forming Co. Wilmington, Joe Strnad, chairman; Avalon Savings & Loan Assn. of Wilmington, H. Fred Russell, chairman; and B and T Machine, Inc., Gardena, Mrs. Edna Ward, chairman.

Other awards were also presented to city chairman, outstanding volunteers and firms and employ groups who gave generously to the 1963 United Way appeal.

T. M. McDaniel, Jr., Rolling Hills resident, 1963 Areas campaign chairman for Los Angeles County, installed Williamson as chairman of the 1964 Harbor Area board and Edward d'Anna, industrial relations, Union Carbide & Chemical Co., Torrance, as first vice-chairman.

Praising Harbor Area volunteers for an excellent campaign the first year of United Way, McDaniel said this first campaign throughout the County was a success. "A HALF million more dollars were raised and this means that services in United Way will continue to receive support," he said. "We hope United Way can become inclusive now that its success has been shown. We will always keep the door open to all worthwhile causes to join so that the total health, welfare and youth needs in this great metropolitan area can be met efficiently and effectively, with low campaign costs and with savings in time for the contributor and the volunteer," he concluded.
