JOHN VANDERKILT
Gets National Supply Post

Vanderkilt Promoted at Local Plant

John J. Vanderkilt, who joined National Supply Co. in Torrance 20 years ago as a clerk in the sales-order department, has been named superintendent of plant sales and services for the firm, now National Supply Division, Arco Steel Corp.

Vanderkilt succeeds Lloyd Hill, who has retired after more than 46 years of service at the local plant. Before his promotion, he was assistant supervisor of factory sales in the sales-order department.

Hill went to work at the Torrance plant in 1918 as a stock record clerk. He advanced to chief clerk in the plant's sales-order office in 1924.

He was promoted to sales-order control manager in 1942 and to oil field products department manager in 1950. In 1962, the title of the post was changed to superintendent of plant sales and service.

Mike Fornelli Earns Award As Salesman

Mike Fornelli, 15, for Torrance, has been selected as one of the four best Junior Achievement salesmen in the Southwest area.

Fornelli, a sophomore at Serra High School, reached the finals of the Southwest District's "Best Junior Achievement Salesman" contest through a series of tests and interviews.

Junior Achievement is a national business program of economic experience in which teenagers organize and operate small businesses of their own under the guidance of adult advisors from prominent local businesses.

Mira Costa High School senior Tim Murray was judged the area's top salesman. Dorothy Gallager of Morningside High and Les Simons of El Segundo High also reached the finals.

Tartars Plan Eighth Grade Speech Meet

Students now attending elementary schools in the Torrance High attendance area will enter the annual Tartar Eighth Grade Speech contest.

Miss Jane Hoose, a speech teacher at Torrance High, is the sponsor for the second annual contest.

Among the topics which have been suggested this year are: "An American Citizen's Rights and Responsibilities Under the Constitution," "Communism — A Threat to the Constitution," and "Our Constitution — Ordained by Free Men, Sustained by Free Men."

The contest is held to give students who enroll at Torrance High an opportunity to become acquainted with speech activities on the campus.
