Mariachi Band Helps At Restaurant Debut

Margarita's Mexican Restaurant, 5111 Torrance Blvd., opened with all the gaiety and splendor of Old Mexico last week.

To assist in the grand opening festivities, a colorful six-piece strolling Mariachi band entertained first day customers.

Margarita Lytle and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Knox, owner, expressed their thanks for the many Torrance friends who made the opening "a grand success."

Luncheon and dinner will be served daily except Mondays at the new Sonora-style restaurant.

Mexican food in all its enticing varieties is being offered by the new dining spot. Imported and domestic wine and beers are also available.

Sunglasses will provide relief from the sun's glare, but will not protect against harmful infra-red rays that can damage the retina of the eye. Never look directly at the sun when wearing sunglasses.

Dear Sir: Tell me it ain't true that Hollywood is going to film "Dylan" with an actor other than the great Alec Guinness, who's now doing it on Broadway. Next thing you know, those idiots out there will be signing Rosalind Russell for Paul Scofield's part in "A Man for All Seasons" — Dorothy L. Newell, Schneckedy, N.Y.

Dear Dorothy: It's true Columbia Pictures has offered the part to Peter O'Toole but they explain the Dylan of the movie has to be younger than the poet played by Guinness.

Dear Mike: Unless my memory serves me ill, one of your recent columns has done me a disfavor. You mentioned "June West." To keep the record straight, the gal your mailbox correspondent referred to was, no doubt, June East, who for two years or more impersonated Mae West in theaters and nightclubs through the east. Those were the days when East was East and West was West. Yours for old time's sake and a dressed memory. — Isabel Bevan Stewart (alias June East), Mill Valley, Calif.

Dear Isadel-June: Thanks for straightening out our directions and when are you coming back to work, you great big beautiful doll?

Dear Sir: Who played the title role of "Daddy Long Legs" in the old Mary Pickford movie? I am going on 77 and I say it was Warner Baxter but other members of my family (all in their early 50s) say it where do you draw the line?

It depends on what you're putting on the line—savings or investments. If it's an investment you're making, naturally you'll want to get a high return. And most investments do pay higher returns because higher risks are involved. But where your savings are concerned, you can't afford to take chances. Most people don't. They put their money where the interest is sure and where the principal is protected—in the bank.
