

Seaside PTA Officers Installed At May Meeting

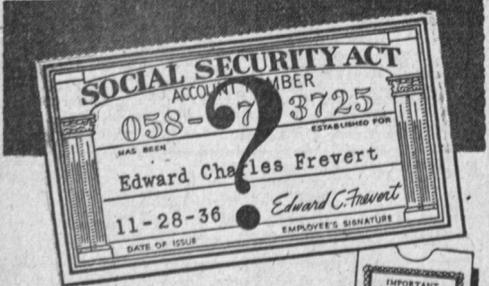

The May meeting of the Seaside PTA was an impressive one. Mrs. Paul Roettger called upon Principal Earl Eckert to present the newly organized orchestra and its director Mr. Lloyd Reist. The orchestra played four selections that were well received by the audience. Mr. Eckert then introduced Mrs. Rowena Lawson and a very recently organized girls glee club. The audience was amazed at the progress this group has made in the four weeks they have been singing together.

Reports were received from each of this year's chairmen. For a newly organized unit, caught

Avalon Village Makes Changes

Avalon Village Co., Unit No. 3 is under new management, and is at present making many improvements, according to reports. Improvements include buildings repainted, lawns restored, screen door installed on all apartments, and ice plant, which has proved undesirable removed and replaced with lawn.

Mrs. Arthur Hackney; auditor, Mrs. Earl Eckert; historian, Mrs. Emmett Ryckman.
Mrs. A. C. Turner, president of the Torrance Council PTA introduced representatives from each of the Torrance PTA units, a nice tribute to the incoming and outgoing officers of the Sea Side Unit. Cake and coffee were served to a large group by the tea committee, headed by Mrs. A. Patrosky.

Catholic Daughters to Install Heads June 12

TORRANCE—Mrs. J. J. MacDonald is the newly elected grand regent of Court St. Catherine of Catholic Daughters of America.

Other officers elected to serve with her for the coming year include: Mmes Bernard Harwood, vice regent; Lyle O'Hara, prophet; T. C. Turner, financial secretary; Miss Madeline Ban, historian; Joseph Ru-beo, treasurer; John Melville, lecturer; Joseph Lucas, monitor; Leonard Young, sentinel; John V. Murray, organist; T. T. Babbit, out-going regent will serve as trustee, assisted by Frank Farrell.
Installation of the new officers is set for June 12, at 8 p.m. Mrs. H. W. Phinney, deputy of Compton will act as installing officer. At the regular meeting of the study club, Monday at the home of Mrs. Howard Owens, a review of "California Missions and Their Romance" will be given by Mrs. Lyle O'Hara.
The group will sponsor a pantry luncheon in the church hall, May 22 at 12:15 p.m. Mrs. John V. Murray, chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Frank Gately, ways and means chairman.

Will Hold Elections

Methodist men, under their recently adopted constitution, will conduct election of officers at the monthly dinner meeting on Wednesday, May 31, at 6:30 p.m.

In anticipation of a large attendance, the program chairman has arranged an especially entertaining evening. The Halldale P-TA Mother Singers, participants at the recent State Convention, will be on hand with several selections. In addition "Fish On," a color film with sound, depicting Alaskan fishing, will more than whet the vacationer's appetite. Reservations should be made not later than Sunday, May 28.
