TAP's Enjoy Skating Party

Thirty-five Torrance Auxiliary Police members enjoyed Monday evening roller skating at the Hippodrome skating rink in Long Beach.

The group was accompanied by Police woman Lucile Stroh, Police Officers M. H. Porter, D. C. Cook and Gale Whitacre.

One of the main purposes of the TAPs is to give the youth of Torrance a chance to develop leadership, become good citizens and cooperate with law enforcement agencies.

Applicants who are accepted for membership, are on probation for three months, during this time they receive class instruction on Juvenile Laws, First Aid, Traffic Laws, Fire Prevention and Safety of Firearms.

A "Youth Committee" of seven members, headed by Chief of Police J. H. Stroh, and composed of Lucille Stroh, Capt. Willard Haslam, Sgt. Swayne Johnson, John Maestri, Douglas Cook and Gale Whitacre, supervise and direct the activities of the TAPs.

Under the direction of Mrs. John Blackmon and Mrs. M. D. Hiebert, the children of the after-school playground will present a play entitled "Sleeping Beauty," Friday, June 9, 3:30 p.m. at the Hall-dale school.
