

Lyle O'Hara Unopposed In American Legion Race

TORRANCE — Barring any unforeseen developments, Mr. Lyle O'Hara of this city will be unopposed in his race for the position of Commander of the Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post, Mr. James Wilkes, chairman of the Nominating committee, announced today.

Competition for the other 1950-51 offices, according to Wilkes, will be stiff. Conservative Robert Sleeth, Jr., will be opposed by liberal-minded Ken Cunningham, a World War II veteran in the campaign for senior vice-commander.

The stretch - drive for junior vice - commander has developed into a three - way race between the most progressive elements of the post's World War II membership. A projection of voting in past performances indicates a split vote among the two favorites Don Steinhilber and Pat Cunningham, with Joseph Platt appearing as a dark - horse candidate, basing his campaign on a varied program of activities by the legion post with community - wide participation.
