

AFTER 65 - Will you be tired? or retired?

What will Social Security mean to you after 65? Will it mean plugging along at the same old job day after day . . . or will it mean a comfortable retirement?

Are you depending entirely on Social Security to take care of you in later years? If you are, you may be disappointed, because it usually does not prove adequate for a normal living standard. On the other hand Social Security, plus a regular income from life insurance, can guarantee security and happiness for yourself and your family.

Through special study, I have equipped myself to show you how you can team up your present Life Insurance with your Social Security to provide maximum benefits from both.

Mail coupon for free Social Security File which lists the official records required to collect benefits, and provides a convenient place for keeping these papers together. I will also include a handy form which will help you estimate your Social Security benefits.

Trio Rebekah News Notes

Next meeting of Trio Rebekahs will be held on June 28th at their regular meeting place over the California Cleaners on 101 Highway with the Noble Grand Mrs. Anna May IsBell presiding. The Social Hour will be under the supervision of Mrs. Teenie Russell.

An item of much interest was omitted from last meeting and we would appreciate having it appear this time.

Mrs. Olive Veatch was escorted to the center of the floor by her Marshall for the past year, and presented with a veteran Rebekah Jewel by her husband.

News From the Royal Neighbors

Mrs. Marie Bankston as chairman for the month of June and the past card party wants to thank all who generously helped her in making the Card party a success.

A nice sum was cleared for the treasury of the lodge.

The Past Oracles Club of Torrance Camp will hold their next meeting on June 26th at the home of Mrs. Mary Schroeder on 1813 Border Avenue.

Next on the agenda is a business meeting the evening of Monday, July 10.

Summer Play To Open at Lomita Park

LOMITA—Lomita Park's new recreation hall opened simultaneously with the start of summer vacation and the park launched the most extensive schedule of summer activities ever attempted here.

Mrs. Marjori Lomsdale, recreation director, said the new schedule, which includes everything from a pre-school class to women's physical fitness, is expected to draw more persons to the play area this summer than during any previous season.

Among the new activities are dancing classes, indoor adult recreation, men and boys basketball, softball, sand modeling, and others.

New Elementary Principal Hired

Robert C. Morton, the principal at Perry Elementary School, has been transferred to Torrance Elementary School in the same capacity.

Lomita Flower Exhibit Held Last Weekend

The Lomita Beauty Flower Show was held in the Recreation Building of Lomita Park last weekend.

It was under the direction of Mrs. George D. Hunt, chairman and John Ericson, president of the Fuschia Club.

The event was sponsored by Lomita area branch of the California Fuschia Society and the Los Angeles County department of Parks and Recreation. James Faircloth, a Gardena nurseryman, was the Master of Ceremonies.

Hundreds of door prizes were donated by Commercial exhibitors.

Honor Guests were Harry Marshall, president of The California State Fuschia Society, Murray Minehart, State secretary, Mrs. Leon Dwight, president of the San Pedro Garden Club, Mrs. Hattie Greene, Mrs. Stratton of San Pedro, Joseph Copp Jr., County Fair official, Carl O. Perharly, and R. Marshall of the Los Angeles county department of Parks and Recreation, Dorothy Knabner, Mary Rogers, and Elsa Stone of Lawndale, Tillie Latta, Betty Matice and Francis Schumann of Hawthorne and others.

Nearly 900 people attended the exhibit as 100 awards were made.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gerstor were presented a gift of a large Joan of Arc hanging basket fuschia, for untiring work in the Fuschia Club. Mr. James Faircloth was donor. N. E. Noell of San Pedro received a hanging fuschia basket at the result of a drawing.

Stan Kenton to Appear in Balboa
