

Inglewood Council PTA Leaders Resign; Successors Named

The September 27th meeting of Inglewood Council PTA was held recently, conducted by Mrs. Carl Juhnke, president. Two resignations were accepted, those of Mrs. Dorothy Austin and Mrs. Minnie Holcomb, health and hospitality chairmen respectively. New chairmen ratified were Mrs. Rose Tiberio, health; Mrs. Dave Altie, hospitality; Mrs. Frank Parker, radio, motion picture and television.

The new membership enrollment drive, with its slogan "Be One in a Million," starts Oct. 8 and runs for two weeks. Mrs. Ted Carrington, juvenile protection chairman, announced that Oct. 14 the 13-20 club will be host to 200 teen-agers at a one-day convention, and need assistance in furnishing the noon meal. A committee chosen to supervise obtaining and serving the food is composed of Meses. Mildred Irons, Dorothy Blankeley, Minnie Holcomb, Hester Bode, Pauline Carrington and Roxie Altie. Mrs. Jessie Hanks and Mrs. Dorothy Farrell were appointed to attend the legislative conference in February. Mrs. Juhnke announced that the week of Oct. 24 is United Nations Week and "the best hope for peace is the United Nations." Mrs. C. Rees will conduct a parliamentary procedure review in her home on the corner of Hillcrest and Regent, starting today at 9:30 a.m.

Welcome Rebekah Lodge Members Get Pleasant Surprise

Members of Welcome Rebekah Lodge No. 143 were pleasantly surprised at a recent meeting when a gift-wrapped package was placed on the station of the noble grand, Bernice Trenary, marked "Not to be opened until the good of the order." Under the good of the order the lodge celebrated the 99th year of the Rebekah degree and opened the package to find a beautifully polished box containing four gavels, hand made by a brother Odd Fellow, Sterling Maynard who recently was presented with a 50-year continuous membership jewel by Inglewood Odd Fellows. He and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary a short time ago.

Welcome Rebekah lodge will hold Friendship night Oct. 10 in their hall at 159 1/2 North La Brea avenue. Officers have invited other officers in the district to be their guests. Included among those expected are Nirena Mercer, district deputy president, of West Los Angeles, and her deputy marshal, Louella Smith. Hostesses for the meeting are Edna Stollar, Anna Reaves and Rosa Connolly, assisted by a committee.

Two new members were initiated into membership Sept. 26 with a beautiful candlelight ceremony. Mrs. Alice Gazelle was the conductor, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Bailey, as the protom warden. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ada Larson and her committee.
