 er found out about the others: Councilman Willys Blount was "sick in bed."
 Councilman H. J. Spelman was at home, and told the reporter he would not attend the meeting. When asked why, the reporter (a woman) was told: "It is none of your business."
 However, had Spelman attended the meeting, as he is pledged to do as a Councilman, the whole problem would have been ended, with Drale and Powell planning to make the second necessary motions to ease the situation on the walks, the two and one-half acres and the easements.
 That Stevens knew that the meeting was going to be boycotted was made known when he told Drale and Powell at 4 p.m. Tuesday that there would be no meeting that night. Drale and Powell, true to their oath, ap-

 Those attending from Torrance were Mmes. Lyle O'Hara, T. C. Myron, and Samuel Dow.
 Rosemary De Camp, well known radio actress, took the lead in a skit presented by volunteers, designed to show the section chairmen how to conduct round table workshops for their door-to-door campaign volunteers.
 The round tables are scheduled to be held November 1st in conjunction with a special Community Chest television show.
 Readers of the Press are asked to write "Letters to the Editor" about Laven's unfortunate plight to see of the city cannot "squeeze" out a few more cents a month for Laven in the way of a bus pass.

Toastmasters To Talk In Community Chest Drive Here

Torrance Toastmasters, under the leadership of Dr. Allen Pyeatt, are volunteering as Red Feather speakers for the 1950-51 Community Chest campaign in Torrance.
 Indoctrination sessions for all speakers in the Harbor Area were completed last Monday night at a final meeting in San Pedro at which Lynn D. Mowat, general manager of the Community Chest of the Los Angeles Area discussed the 1950 campaign for 155 Red Feather Services.

 Torrance Toastmasters serving as Red Feather speakers are available to speak before all local clubs and organizations, Pyeatt said.

Also available is the new 1950 Community Chest film, "Doubting Thomas," a 16 mm color, sound movie depicting a tour of a variety of Chest supported services. A speaker and the film may be booked by telephoning Dr. Pyeatt at Torrance 494.
 Toastmasters who have volunteered their services as speakers are: Lester Foster, Morris Hunt, L. S. Jacobson, Gilbert Kyllingstad, C. J. Meadway, Bob Owens, Kenneth Ruffell, Harry Watkins, and Allen Pyeatt who is serving as chairman of the Chest Speakers Bureau in Torrance.

Local X-Ray Survey Plans Underway

Lomita, the Shoestring Strip and Avalon Village have begun planning promotion of the X-Ray Survey in their respective communities, according to a meeting held last week of Survey Regional Steering Committee.
 Plans are also underway for the x-ray campaign in Rolling Hills and Palos Verdes.
 Other cities in Region 16 who were not represented at the Sept. 14th meeting will submit progress reports at the next meet slated for Oct. 26. X-ray operations are scheduled to begin in Region 16 on November 27.

Chairman of Survey's Regional Steering Committee at meeting held last week was Dr. H. C. Ward, Long Beach Branch, L.A. County Medical Association. Other representatives from the nine districts into which the Harbor Area has been divided for Survey purposes include Miss Annis Fletcher, Long Beach Tuberculosis and Health Association; Chadwick School, Rolling Hills; Mrs. Clara Dillbeck, Dominguez Coordinating Council, Wilmington; Mrs. E. N. Reese, Shoestring Strip, Torrance.
 Mrs. Gladys Pearce, Torrance District, Los Angeles County Health Dept.; Dr. David Trainer, Bellflower Branch, Los Angeles County Health Dept.; Dr. G. E. McDonald, Long Beach Tuberculosis and Health Association; Dr. Philip M. Halloran, Shoestring Strip; Mrs. E. O. Bemis, Lakewood; Horace W. Green, Jr., Signal Hill.
 Mrs. John Wright, Shoestring Strip; Mrs. Minot Rugg, Torrance Shoestring Association; Mrs. J. D. Edens, Torrance Shoestring Strip; Mrs. W. A. MacAllister, Shoestring Association, Halldale PTA; Mrs. Margaret Hall, Southeast Health Center; Dr. Dean Gilman, Los Angeles City Health Dept.; Mrs. Pearl Ormsby, Signal Hill, and Kenneth M. Garcelon, 20-30 Club, Lomita.
 Survey staff personnel will also speak at the next Lakewood Community Council meeting in October, at two meetings in the Shoestring Strip, and at the Welfare Council meet in Torrance Tuesday (Sept. 19).

"The class will hold many advantages for the women of this community as they study color analysis in relation to the individual," said Mrs. Stump.
 "In addition the course will give them the ability to choose their own colors and bring it out in their personality.
 "As we all know color can either add or detract from one's appearance. The course will help you to appreciate the new colors presented on the market and assist you in planning these in the fall wardrobe."
 "Needless to say this will greatly help with the family budget."

Consumers Education Classes Held

LOMITA. Mrs. Alpha Stump instructor in the course of Consumers Education has announced the meeting of her class every Friday morning from 9 until 11 at the old auditorium at Lomita Elementary School.
