Dressmaking Class to Be At Waleria

A new, free adult class in dressmaking will be held each Monday morning at the Waleria Recreation Hall, 242nd and Ocean avenue, starting Oct. 16 at 9 o'clock. Instructor of the class will be Florence Laycock, who for several years headed the Home Economics Department of La Verne college. Mrs. Laycock plans sessions on how to use the sewing machines and its attachments, how to follow patterns, how to design original dresses, how to remake children's clothes, how to make draperies, slip covers, and curtains. All adults, regardless of residence, are invited to join this free class and discuss their individual problems with the instructor.

Halloween Carnival Is Planned

"Give the Chicken something to do on Halloween!" The Torrance Elementary P.T.A. expects to solve this problem by holding a Halloween Carnival at the school on October 31, according to the program chairman. Tentative plans were drawn up at the October Executive board meeting held at the home of Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, 2724 Arlington, Monday evening, Mrs. M. B. Miller, president in charge. Chairmen reporting were Mrs. Kenneth Sexton, Ways and Means, Mrs. Roy Dawson, Child Welfare, and Mrs. Levinson, Membership chairman.

Harbor City PTA Plans Carnival

HARBOR CITY — The Executive Board of the Harbor City P.T.A. met with their President, Mrs. William Tregarthen, Wednesday, Oct. 4 at the school. A Halloween carnival was planned to be held at the school Oct. 31 from 5:30 to 8:30. Games, booths, baked foods, ice cream and chili will be served. Proceeds will be divided between the school and the P.T.A. Mrs. W. E. Hoyt, Jr., will act as chairman with Mesdames W. E. Dana, Marvin Scott and Howard McPeak assisting. Mrs. Tregarthen announced with regrets the resignations of Mesdames Harold Limbacher, music; Eugene Bushnell, youth service; Fred Kroll, unit achievement, and Earl Allman, publication.

HANKY SHOWER
A hanky shower was held at the conclusion of the meeting for Mrs. Eugene Bushnell who is moving to Covina and Mrs. Harold Limbacher who is moving to Fontana. Those attending were Mesdames William Tregarthen, Herman Ludwig, Aubrey Mathews, W. E. Dana, George Weeks, Dan Rozendal, Howard McPeak, Lowell Benfer, Dean McIntire, I. J. Guggiana, Woodrow Bench, M. R. Scott, Earl Houston, W. E. Hoyt, Jr., O. E. Grubbs, and Carl Gregory.

Council of Churches to Take Census

The Torrance Council of Churches will begin a Community wide religious Census on Sunday, October 15th. All of the Census workers are to meet in the First Methodist Church Sunday at 12:30 for a luncheon and instruction period. Then the workers will go to their respective districts and call at every house until a complete coverage is made. The Council of Churches is very anxious to ask for the cooperation of every resident in the City to help make this Religious Census as complete and accurate as possible. The area to be covered this Sunday by the Census takers will be as follows: Plaza Del Amo on the north, City limits on the south, Crenshaw on the east and Western Ave. on the west. All people in this district are asked to fill out the sample card and leave on your front door if you are going to be home Sunday afternoon. The next section of town to be covered will include the district between Western Ave., and Normandie and from Sepulveda to 203rd St. The entire City will be covered on successive Sundays Oct. 22nd and Nov. 12th. Every one is asked to cooperate.
