Torrance Schools - Are Rated Tops By Life Magazine

The Torrance Unified School District scored 135 points on a test conducted by a recent issue of Life magazine called "How Good Is Your School?"

Features characteristic of a modern, professionally conducted top quality school include these: The same wage schedule exists for both elementary and secondary school teachers;

In line with the best practices available in the United States today, the new building program of the Torrance schools will include every possible advantage for the education of the child.

The educational test has been appraised by 150 school superintendents and its workability has been analyzed by the educational testing service at Princeton, N. J.

It is expected that the Torrance schools will in the next few years go from their present middle-top status of 135 points to even a higher and more enviable position among well-run schools of our nation.

10th District P-TAs Buy Projectors

An expression of thanks was given to the 10th District P.T.A. from the Los Angeles Board of Education for the purchasing of over 300 motion picture projectors for the use of school children during the 25 years of audio-visual education program.

Mrs. Hazel Stanton and Marvin Scott reported that educational sound films were previewed for elementary and secondary levels.

Funerals

John Eugene Harrington, age 43, of 2062 Kathy Way, died at the Magnolia hospital, Long Beach, on Oct. 21, 1950. Funeral services were held at a local mortuary Wednesday, Oct. 25, with the body being shipped to Pocatello, Idaho, for interment.

The service was conducted by the Torrance Masonic lodge, with Leonard Babcock being the soloist.

Mr. Harrington was employed by the National Supply Company for the past 10 years.

Democratic Dance To Be Saturday

The Los Angeles Democratic County Committee will stage a mammoth Pre-Victory dance and rally at the Hermosa Biltmore Hotel on Saturday, October 28th.

Among the guests to be honored that night will be James Roosevelt, candidate for Governor, Helen Gahagan Douglas, candidate for Senate, and Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, candidate for Attorney General and candidates for Congress and the State Legislature.

A program of top flight entertainment is being arranged, featuring motion picture and radio personalities. According to Charles Deck, Chairman of the event, a name band will play for the dance.

Tickets to the affair may be obtained from the Democratic County and State Committee headquarters at 542 S. Broadway, Broadway Arcade Bldg., Suite 1115, Telephone Madison 7832.

Mayor Haggard On "Mayors-for-Warren" Group

Among the more than 50 of Southern California's most prominent mayors already supporting Governor Earl Warren's re-election is Torrance's Mayor Bob Haggard, disclosed Louis H. Burke.

Burke, secretary for the "Mayors-for-Warren Committee," said more than a dozen leading municipal chiefs joined the group in the past week.

He predicted a majority of all mayors in Southern California soon will be represented on the committee.

"They're all supporting Governor Warren," he added, "because they've enjoyed such close, practical, non-political liaison with his administration."
