COURTESY NIGHT CELEBRATED BY LOCAL JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Last Tuesday evening at 7:30 the Masonic Temple was the scene of Courtesy Night of the Job's Daughters.

Gardena, Lomita, Redondo, Wilmington, San Pedro, and Compton were the Bethels that were represented at the meeting.

Miss Beverly Luster, Honored Queen was the hostess of the meeting. Miss Ruth Wolford, Honored Queen of Gardena also helped Beverly Luster with the program.

After the meeting everyone adjourned to the banquet room where refreshments were served by Mrs. Raleigh Bener and her committee of Job's Daughters. A social program was presented by the Torrance girls, who were hostesses for the evening.

The decorations were carried out in a November theme of fall colors.

Each Courtesy officer received a gold bracelet during the program.

Ladies Guild to Hold Breakfast

On November 14th the Ladies Guild will put on a breakfast at the Guild Hall, Arlington at Marcelana, for the public. Breakfast will be served from 7 to 11 a.m.

Hot cakes, muffins, sausages, and coffee will be served. Donations will be accepted as payment for the breakfast. Everyone is urged to come.

BNAI BRITH FASHION SHOW SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. Robert Firstman first vice president and chairman of ways and means of Bnai Brith Women reports that the fashion show held on October 30 at the Torrance Women's Club was a social and financial success.

Over 140 men and women attended the affair at the Torrance Women's Club.

Mrs. Herbert Schackae made a charming mistress of ceremonies as she introduced the various guests and dignitaries present and then presented Mr. Russ Clark of the Colony club. Mr. Clark preformed with his puppets to everyone's enjoyment. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Francis Weiss.

Joyce Teague then presented the fashions from Louises dress shop in Gardena and fashions from Jean's of Hermosa and Manhattan Beach. The girls who modeled were all from Miss Teague's modeling school.

Mrs. Jules Lapidus, chairman of refreshments set a beautiful table. There were silver service sets at either end of the table. Serving coffee and tea were Mrs. Mack Brown, Mrs. Harvey Gole, Mrs. Sam Raphaelson. Beautiful floral decorations were set on

325 Attend North Torrance Party

The party sponsored by the North Torrance civic improvement association in McMaster Recreation Center on Hallowe'en night was a rousing success if one could judge by the crowd and the noise.

Approximately 250 children and about 75 adults attended.

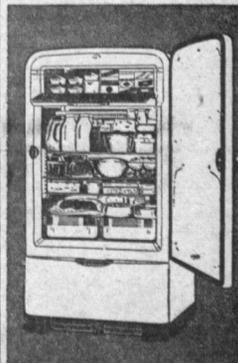

The hall was artistically decorated in a Hallowe'en and fall motif. There was a fortune teller, a fish pond, a pin the tail on the cat game, a dart game, a hoop game and a game where you knocked the wooden blocks down with a baseball.

Prizes were given to three winners in three age groups; one to five years, six to eight years, and nine to thirteen years.
