

Specials Mark Opening of Fischer Hardware Saturday

Opening specials and gifts for the ladies will highlight the grand opening of Fischer Hardware, 2215 Torrance boulevard, when the doors open this Saturday morning at 8:30.

SHOWN ABOVE is the modern new Fischer Hardware Store, located at 2215 Torrance Blvd., Torrance, which will hold its grand opening this Saturday, November 11. The store is owned and operated by Fred Fischer of Torrance.

ware, garden supplies, and housewares will be carried in the new, modern plate glass front store.

EXCLUSIVE DEALER
Especially built by the owner for the hardware business, the Fischer Hardware Store will be the exclusive dealer in the Torrance-Lomita-Harbor City area for Devco Paints, manufactured by the Devco & Reynolds Co., Inc., America's oldest paint makers, founded in 1754.

The Martin-Senour Nu-Hue paints will be carried in the store. As Fischer, who has had years of experience in this line, said: "The Martin-Senour Nu-Hue paints have long been favorites with top interior decorators and the home decorating specialists of the home magazines. The exact formula for each color is printed on the back of the color card. Precise measurements of color are provided in cans or tubes. This color is simply mixed with white to obtain the exact color selected."

Fischer, who lives at 1318 Beech avenue, Torrance, has a son, Larry, 19 years of age, and a daughter, Jane, 16 years of age. Larry is now attending Pepperdine college, and Jane, Torrance High school.

Charlie Reid Downs Elk on Hunting Trip

Recently returned from a one month hunting trip at Soap Creek Basin, 40 miles northwest of Gunnison, Colorado, on which he downed a 748 pound elk is Charlie Reid, one of co-owners of Torrance Tee Vee.

With him on the trip was Don O'Connell, Al Flickinger, and Joe Nissen, all of Torrance. All are part owners of Torrance Tee Vee, located at 1629 Cravens avenue.

Reid shot the six pointer three-year-old elk twice before downing him, once in the neck and once in the upper part of the shoulder.

Thanksgiving baskets will be distributed to the needy of Torrance by the Tawasi Group of Campfire Girls in the North Torrance Area, sponsored by Betty Johnson.

The group began work on their baskets on Hallowe'en Eve when they combined their Trick or Treat fun with their good deed.

When offered a treat they asked instead for canned goods. Those collecting the most cans were Sandra Considine and Karen Gaw who received prizes.

Dedication at Harbor JC Sunday

The dedication program will be opened with a word of welcome by the director, Raymond J. Casey, and will include short greetings addresses by Dr. Alexander J. Stoddard, superintendent of schools, Roy J. Becker, president of the board of education, and Dr. Howard Campion, associate superintendent, division of Extension and Higher Education.
