Local Couple Repeats Marriage Vows Today

To be joined in marriage at a 7:00 p.m. ceremony tonight at the Garden Wedding Chapel in Long Beach are Jacquie King and Eugene W. Holloman, both of Torrance. A reception will be immediately following. Jacquie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. King, Sr., of 803 Beech avenue, Eugene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Holloman of 1625 Crenshaw avenue.

Both graduates of Torrance High School, Jacquie graduated in the June, 1950 class, and Eugene in the June, 1946, class. Eugene spent the two years of 1946 to 1948 serving in the United States Navy.

The future Mrs. Holloman is now employed at a Torrance department store, and Eugene is working at a local dairy.

After a one week honeymoon the couple plans to make their residence in Torrance.

Parody Players At Last Harbor City Sing

HARBOR CITY — A treat was in store for everyone who attended the last Harbor City Sing, November 17th at the Harbor City Elementary School Auditorium. The Harbor City Singstril cast consisted of committee members and volunteers from the audience. The show was full of zest and sparkling fun.

The Parody Players, members of the Ham Theatre Guild presented the program. June Betz led the opening song. Mrs. Marie Swenson did a novelty act around which the program revolved.

The Harbor Barber quartet, Marshall Pine, Nick Betz, Delbert Bench, and Harold Eads, sang many songs in minstrel fashion. They were ably assisted by Mrs. Jacqueline Carr of San Pedro, Mr. Leonard Kitach and Mr. Wilbur Savage portrayed the part of two men in white coats. They played an appropriate part in the program. Mrs. Gertrude Shriver did an impression of Al Jolson.

The gifted trio from the San Pedro community sing, Walt Fowler, Mrs. Dorothy Searcy, and Mr. Hank Botts presented a dance routine, and banjo and piano specialties.

Mrs. Mildred Taylor sang "Lazy Bones" with a Southern accent.

Vance Graham presided over the group in the part of Mr. Grones. His costume was hilarious.

Mrs. Helen Ludwig, secretary of the Harbor City Sing and Mrs. Helen Scott, publicity chairman were of the honored guests for the evening.

People under 21 must be accompanied by parents. The next Harbor City Sing is slated for November 24th at 7:30, Harbor City.

Expected Home

Expected home for Thanksgiving dinner is Gary Collins who is stationed at Camp Cook. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Harbor City.

Oakland Bound

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Corder and family of Torrance will motor to Oakland to spend the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Hunter.
