

Dental Clinic for Torrance School Children Discussed

The Torrance P.T.A. Council combined business with pleasure at the December meeting held at the Christian Church, December 12th. All P.T.A. units were well represented at the combination business session, pot luck luncheon, and gift exchange.

Torrance Man Assists with Shriner Ritual

Assisting in the ritual to highlight the visitation of Imperial potentate's ceremonist is being arranged by illustrious Potentate Virgil "Fuzzy" Frizzell of Al Malakiah Temple, Los Angeles.

It is scheduled for Saturday, January 6, in Shrine auditorium. Potentate Fozest, who hails from Sudan Temple, Wake Forest, N. C., was elected to supreme command of the Shriners at the 1950 Imperial Council Session in Los Angeles.

Potentate "Fuzzy" in a bulletin to Shrine club officers and ambassadors in this area indicated there is still time for Scottish Rite 32nd degree Masons, and Knights Templar to qualify for Moslem induction in the presence of the Imperial Potentate, and asked them to contact General Membership Chairman Richard A. Terrell or Recorder Ernie Hurst.

Lt. M. G. Smith, Wife, Due Home

Among service personnel due home for the Christmas holidays are Lieut. (jg) Maurice G. Smith U. S. Navy flier, and Mrs. Smith, the former Muriel Alverson, of Torrance.

Lieutenant Smith has been based at Sand Point Naval Air Base in Seattle, and was called back to active duty September

Local Creamery 90 Day Building Extension Okehd

On recommendation of the Planning Commission, the City Council Dec. 12 approved the request of the Mayfair Creamery for extension on their Variance to build a creamery. The creamery will be located on property at 20301 South Western ave.

It was an unanimous recommendation of the Commission that an extension of ninety days from December 8, 1950, be granted.

Preliminary Courts Building Plans Approved

Preliminary plans for the proposed County Courts Building to be used by the Torrance area were approved Tuesday by the L. A. County Board of Supervisors on motion of Supervisor Raymond V. Darby. The building will be located in Compton.

A recommendation by the Chief Administrative Officer, Wayne Allen, — that the architects be instructed to provide alternate plans for elimination of one courtroom — was also incorporated in the approval. This will keep construction within the $172,000 budgeted for the building.

Local Developer Wins Prize In National Contest

Second prize in the 1950 neighborhood development contest sponsored by the National Association of Home Builders was won by K. Sande Senness, Torrance builder and developer.

Senness' award was made in the class of projects for economy homes consisting of 50 units or more. His development is located at Pacific Hills.

The judges announced the award last week in Washington, D.C.

L. E. Stecker In Korean Battles

"Right in it" in the Korean battle against Chinese communists is L. E. Stecker, a chief in the quartermaster corps, U. S. Navy.

Word received by his family and friends in Torrance is to the effect that he had been in Hungnam, but had been sent on an independent mission.

A regular Navy man, Stecker had served as a Lieutenant tenant throughout World War II, and was in the thick of several South Pacific naval battles.
