E. Sutter and R. Wood Joined In Yule Ceremony

Joined in marriage with a candlelight Christmas Day ceremony was Miss Elizabeth Sutter, of Hermosa Beach, and Roscoe L. Wood, well-known Torrance architect. The ceremony was performed in the Clovis, New Mexico home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sutter, the bride's parents.

Repeating their vows in the presence of close friends, the couple was joined in marriage by Rev. Thomas H. Raper.

Mr. Sutter gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a big corsage with harmonizing accessories, and her corsage was fashioned of three brown orchids.

Mrs. Andrew Sutter, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and the bride's attendant. Her corsage was of tallisman roses.

Andrew Sutter served as best man.

A reception was held in the home following the ceremony. The table was covered with a white linen cloth, with white and green candles used in the holly and card arrangement. The tiered cake centered the serving table.

Mrs. Wood attended Clovis schools and is a graduate of Northwestern University, where she was a member of Phi Beta, professional fraternity. She received a master's degree from the University of Southern California and is now teaching in the Inglewood, California schools.

Born in Indiana, Wood is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and taught architectural design for several years at the University of Michigan. Shortly before the war he left the United States to
