Libbey Family Band To Give Concert At Waleria Church

Rev. Fred Martin of the Waleria Assembly of God Church extends a cordial welcome to the public to attend the Evangelistic Band Concert to be given by the Libbey Family Band at the Church on Hawthorne boulevard in Waleria on March 7th at 7:30 p.m.

One member will play a duet on two trumpets at the same time, first and second parts, at the concert. Other features will be a Girl's Trio in song, also mixed Trio and Male Quartette. The String Orchestra consists of two electric guitars, two electric mandolins, electric Hawaiian guitar, two ukes, banjo, piano and electric Hammond solovox. The brass band consists of three trumpets, trombone, baritone, alto horn, Eb Sousaphone, brass drums, cymbals, triangle and Bb Sousaphone.

Rev. Barnum To Speak On 'Life Abundant' Sun.

Rev. Barnum of the Church of Religious Science, Redondo Beach, will discuss on Sunday morning "Living the Life Abundant."

"If we would live the life abundant," stated Rev. Barnum, "we must learn to live and act from the positive side of life."

The Children's Church which meets at 11:00 a.m. under the supervision of Rr. Evelyn Earle, strives to show the relationship between thought, action and result. A nursery attendant is present to care for the tiny tots. A Junior Church welcomes all teen-agers to its services.

"The Workshop of Life," which meets regularly with its leader, Mrs. Marjorie Barnum at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesdays will be preceded on March 7th by a social hour in which coffee and sandwiches will be served.

First Christian Church Announces Easter Program

The First Christian Church wishes to announce its services to the Community which are a part of the Easter program of the Congregation.

The pastor, Rev. Cecil J. England will preach each Sunday morning at 10:30 on the General Theme - "Religion Faces Life." The specific subject for each Sunday will deal with events in the Life of Christ just previous to His death and resurrection; each one of which is to show a practical application of religion for every-day life today.

The Chancel Choir under the direction of B. L. Brimley will present the Easter Cantata, "Olivet to Calvary" on Palm Sunday afternoon at 4:00 in the Church. The public is welcome to this service.

The Chapel Choir of the Church under the direction of Ralph Prime will present "The Crucifixion" by John Stainer. This is a meditation on the passion of the Sacred Redeemer. This is to be given on Thursday night in the Church March 22, 1951 at 7:30.

The Fellowship Forum Club is to meet this Sunday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, 17107 So. Denker St. in Gardena. President Joe Lukes and Professor Dr. K. Bergel, Professor at Chapman College in Los Angeles will present the Life and Philosophy of Albert Schweitzer. Dr. Bergel and his wife have recently completed a book on the life of this great modern day disciple. Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Smith are to be the host and hostess at the refreshment hour.

First Lutheran Missionary Group Meets Tonight

Thursday evening, March 1, at 7:30, the March meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of First Lutheran Church will be held in the parish hall, corner of Acacia and Sonoma.

The book, "Parsonage Doorway" by Anna Laura Gephart will be reviewed by Mrs. H. P. Nelson. Hostesses are Mrs. Henry Carlson, Mrs. Keith Pischel and Mrs. Fred Wise.

An interstate commerce commission proposes a rule that automobiles equipped with TV sets must have the screen set "at a point to the rear of the driver's seat — located as not to be visible to the driver." Motorists are reminded by the Los Angeles Police Department that car radios can be equally dangerous to drivers who take their eyes off the road when tuning stations.
