Banner Drug Wins Over Eagles In League Playoff

The Banner Drug quintet, of Lomita, posted a startling 51-36 win over the touted Redondo Eagles in a game played Monday evening in the Lomita Park Gym in the League I playoff of the Torrance City-L. A. County Basketball Leagues.

The teams had finished the regular season's play with an 8 win to 2 loss record each, which made the playoff game necessary.

The Eagles' attack was spearheaded by the forward Ed White, jump shot artist deluxe, who poured in a total of 19 points. Center John Kincannon was high man for the Eagles with 12 points.

The Banner Drug team could do no wrong in the first half, controlling the back boards at both ends. They built up a 34 to 14 margin in this period, which they coasted on to their victory.

Winners will be presented first place trophy and losers the second place trophy of League I at the Award Dinner to be held at the Alondra Park Gym, 7 p. Thursday, March 15.

Fenwick's Shoe Repair finished the winners of League II, finished up Wednesday, Feb. 21, at the Torrance High School Gym. They defeated Torrance Merchants in their final game, 87 to 59, during which Dave Dougherty of Fenwick's barely nosed out Jim Halle of the Torrance Teachers for the League II individual scoring trophy. Dougherty's total points were 179 and Halle's 177.

Results of final league games played Feb. 21 are as follows:

LEAGUE I (played at Alondra Park Gym)
Lloyd Denee's Gunga Din (49) — Robertson's Insurance Agency (47). High scorers were Chisato Kubo (20), Gunga Din, and Bill Cox (15), Robertson's.

Triple-A midget racers roar back onto Carrell Speedway's half-mile clay track for their second big race of the new season Sunday afternoon, March 4.

A full afternoon of racing is scheduled featuring all the championship drivers and the best racing machinery in the area. AAA midget titleholder Billy Vukovich, Pacific Coast Champion Joe Garson, and 1949 Pacific Coast champion Perry Gimm are listed to compete as are such popular local stars as Allen Heath, Roger Ward, Troy Ruttman, Norman Holtkamp, Bob Ball, Frank Armi, Bill Cantrell, Jim Bryan, Duane Carter and many other favorites.

Winner of the first AAA midget session this year at Carrell Gordon Reid will also be in the lineup.

Time trials open the program at noon with the first event hitting the big track at 2:30 p.m.

Alan Hoferbar (1118), Harbor Hospital, and Walt Jeffrey (17), Fierman's.

Torrance Teachers (54) — Columbia Steel (36). High scorers were Jive Halle (22), and Bill Moore (21). Torrance Teachers and Harry Theodosis (15), Columbia Steel.

Fenwick's Shoe Repair (82) — Torrance Merchants (59). High scorers were Paul Smith (32) and Dave Dougherty (28). Fenwick's and Al Widner (25), Torrance Merchants.

El Camino Nine Ready For Conference Schedule

Prospects for a second baseball crown appeared good at El Camino college as Coach Doug Essick's nine prepared this week for the opening of Metropolitan Conference play on March 2.

In the first two weeks of practice games the Warriors, defending Metro champions, won five and tied one. Victories were scored over Glendale, Harbor, and Compton, and Orange Coast held the locals to a 2-2 tie.

Week-day games on the following schedule will be played at 3 p.m. and Saturday games are slated to begin at 2 p.m. All home games will be played on the Warrior field.
