Ruby Lucille Shaver and Ciro Giammona Take Marriage Vows

Married in a morning ceremony at the Nativity Catholic Church of Torrance Feb. 27 was Miss Lucille Shaver and Ciro Giammona. Rev. Patrick McGuinness officiated over the 9 a.m. nuptial mass.

The bride, who attended Torrance Elementary School and Torrance High school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Shaver, 1569 W. 218th Street, Torrance. The groom, who has taken his physical examination for the armed services, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Giammona of Long Beach. Ruby Lucille graduated from St. Anthony High school in Long Beach with the class of 1949.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dolores J. Lowery and best man was John P. Fournier.

CHANTILLY LACE BODICE

The bride was beautifully gowned in a ballerina length tulle skirt over satin with a chantilly lace bodice. The full length sleeves of chantilly lace matched the bodice. The headpiece was of rhinestone and seeded pearl tiara with fingertip illusion. The neckline was of an exquisite sweetheart lace design. The matron of honor wore a veiling rose taffeta princess style gown of formal length with a rose and net bonnet to match. She wore taffeta elbow sleeves. Mrs. Shaver, the mother of the bride, wore a beige tailored suit with a flesh pink nylon blouse and lizard accessories.

The prayer book was centered with a large, white orchid and split carnations and white streamers. There was a rosary on the prayer book.

The church was decorated with white stocks and carnations. GRANDMOTHER'S RING For "the something old" worn by the bride was a ring of her
