Tinkle-Capdeville Vows Said In Formal Rite

Billie Beth Tinkle became the bride of Benny Capdeville in a formal afternoon nuptial ceremony Sunday, March 10 at the Methodist Wayside Chapel in Lomita. Rev. Roger Sawyer joined the couple in marriage.

A graduate of Narbonne High School, Miss Tinkle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tinkle of 4055 Newton street, Waveria. The groom, son of Mrs. Beatrice Capdeville is of Port Hueneme, near Oxnard, California.

The bride was attired in a lovely all white floor length gown with a gathered net over taffeta skirt. The fitted bodice was of chantilly lace and tulle. The fingertip veil was also of tulle. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and camellias. The maid of honor, sister of the bride, wore a light blue net over taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Mrs. Jack W. Tinkle, sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her lovely pink net over taffeta was in lovely contrast to the bride's white attire. She also carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride was given away by her father, Jack Tinkle. Henry Capdeville, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride's brother, Jack W. Tinkle and Jim Lee Whitmer were ushers.

Soloist was Robert Sleeth, Jr., who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Organist was Margaret Phillips.

More than 85 guests crowded the home of the bride's parents where a reception followed the marriage ceremony.

The newlyweds will reside at Camarillo Heights near Camarillo, California. The groom who is a graduate of Oxnard High School spent three years in the United States Marines and is now employed at an oil company in Ventura.

District Deputy President Visits Trio Rebekahs

On Wednesday evening, March 29th, Trio Rebekah Lodge met in the California Hall of 101 Highway with the Noble Grand, Mrs. Amy Savage, in charge of the meeting.

A highlight of the meeting was the official visit of Mrs. Catherine Sproull, District Deputy PPresident of District 84 and her staff, as guests of Trio.

During the business session, the election of delegates to the Rebekah Assembly to be held in Santa Cruz the first week in May was held. Mrs. Margie Russell, Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt and Mrs. Olive Veatch were elected to represent Trio at this Assembly meeting.

The social hour was under the supervision of Mrs. Veatch. She and her co-workers had the hall beautifully decorated in spring flowers.

There was a good representation of all lodges in the District at this meeting.

Ceramic Classes Now Open at Adult School

A wide variety of free adult ceramics classes, open to all regardless of residence, are now receiving enrollments for new students. Sponsored by the Torrance School of Adult Education, classes are held in three locations.

At Torrance High School on Monday and Thursday nights at 6:45 the class is held in room 201. At the North Torrance Elementary School (four blocks East of Crenshaw Blvd. and 174th Street) the class is held on Wednesday nights. At Seaside Elementary School (in Seaside Ranchos) off of Highway 101 in Torrance, the class is held each Tuesday night. It is at this class that a giant kiln is in operation for the benefit of students who desire to complete their own work.

Both beginning and advanced students are welcome to attend these free classes and all will be welcome, since instruction is based on the individual project of the student. Those with ideas of their own are encouraged to carry them out; others will get help from the instructor Clifford Inslee and will work with other students in the class.

The art of ceramics requires little previous background or skill but the desire to find a new outlet for creative talent. Products that can be made include flower vases, candy dishes, cups, saucers, dinnerware sets, figurines, lamp bases and ornaments.

Students are requested to attend the next regular meeting of the class to register, and are invited to telephone Torrance 645 for further information, or to appear at the Adult Education Office of the Torrance High School.

Few persons have sufficient wisdom to prefer censure, which is useful, to praise which deceives them.—Rochefoucauld.

Instrumentalists Urged to Join Adult Orchestra

The Torrance Adult Concert Orchestra under Abe Milstein, Director, welcomes new instrumentalists in all fields to join the orchestra and prepare for the forthcoming May concert.

Sponsored by the Torrance Adult School, this free group holds several concerts throughout the year and encourages both intermediate and advanced musicians in all categories to spend their Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 10 in the Torrance High School Auditorium, where new members are invited to join the group.

Adults are invited to join this organization to serve as a profitable use of their leisure time, as an outlet for their pent-up emotions and for an opportunity to exercise their creative ability to the full. Instruction in individual instruments and in the playing of the orchestra are incident and part of the regular orchestral rehearsal.

Bennetts Wish To Thank Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bennett wish to thank all their friends and neighbors for the kindness and consideration shown them during the recent illness and death of Mrs. Bennett's father, Jacob B. Brock.

Brock, who was a resident of Waveria for the past 27 years passed away at his home, 3840 Newton street, March 27. Funeral services were held last Thursday.

The traffic toll in 1950, reduced to dollars, would build 10,000 homes for over 300,000 drivers in the United States. Says the Los Angeles Police Department—conserve both health and wealth by observing traffic laws at all times.
