a white orchid nosegay. Mrs. Hancock was gowned in a yellow taffeta dress with a cascade of orchid carnations. The bride, Miss Glenda Wilcox, wore an orchid taffeta gown with a cascade of yellow colored carnations.

The bride's mother, attired in a turquoise formal gown, wore a lovely corsage of yellow roses. Joyce Kizziar served the bride as flower girl.

Rev. Barnum to Speak on Use Of Mind Sunday

In his Sunday service at the Church of Religious Science, Redondo Beach, Rev. Earl D. Barnum will discuss "How to Use the Law of Mind."

By striving constantly to emphasize the good, happy, joyous and perfect conditions that we would like to see in our experience our lives change."

Services for the Children's Church are at 11:00 a.m.

'Probation After Death' Christian Science Theme

The benefits of acquiring a spiritual understanding of eternal life will be stressed in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death" in all Christian Science churches.

This citation from Proverbs (21:16,21) is the Golden Text: "The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead. . . . He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour."
