Workers Lie Down on Jobs

Authorities declared today that a considerable number of local workers are lying down on jobs. Collectively, the workers feel that these jobs are the finest one could hope to lie down on, since, after all, the jobs are designed for comfortable reclining.

The jobs in question are those expert jobs of craftsmanship that this city's finest upholsters, Torrance Upholstery, perform daily on overstuffed furniture. The general consensus of the Torrance upholstery company is as follows: You can go to sleep on any of our jobs because we never do (go to sleep on the job, that is). Remember the phone please, Torrance 1157. Call now for a free estimate on repair work or reupholstery.

First Baptist Church to Show Film Sunday

One of the strangest and most challenging pictures ever produced by the Moody Institute of Science will be shown at the First Baptist Church of Torrance this Sunday night at 7:30 p.m.

This film, "O For a Thousand Tongues" was produced entirely on set in the actual mission stations deep in the Mexican and Peruvian hinterlands. This is a documentary film which vividly portrays the work of producing the Bible for those who have never had their own language written down.

Heathenism in all its frightening reality is seen by aid of telephoto lenses, with actual sound through the medium of tape recordings using hidden microphones in the jungles.

This film will be preceded with a word from Rev. Russell Killman on the subject, "Now Is The Hour." The public is invited to attend this Premier showing in Torrance.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. a group of Bible Students, ministers from Bible College, will assist in the service in vocal and musical numbers. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.
