Fireman Hurt in Flash Blaze Shows Improvement

Robert E. Moffitt, 46, of 2724 Arlington avenue, is reported improving at the Torrance Memorial Hospital from severe burns incurred in a flash fire at an oil rig north of Torrance boulevard and west of Hawthorne boulevard Wednesday, June 6.

Moffitt was on his day off at the time. He was helping a crew pull the well when escaping gas suddenly flared, searing the exposed parts of his body and igniting his hair. Moffitt fled from the flames, removed his trousers and used them to smother the flames in his hair.

Four Yellowtail Included in Fish Catch of Ruffle

Kenny Ruffle, proprietor of Kenny's Shoe Rebuilding Shop, 1278 Sartori avenue, hit the fishing jackpot last Monday, June 11, while fishing off Catalina Island when he pulled in fifteen large fish, limit for the day.

Four Yellowtail were included in his ample catch. Ruffle was fishing from aboard the "Fisherman," out of Pacific Sport fishing landing in Long Beach when he made his unusual "catch."

Ruffle gives credit to his fishing aptitude and skill to Rev. C. M. Miles, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who guided him in the sport.

'Wetbacks' in Area Being Rounded Up

A round-up of "wetbacks" who have been working on farms in this area is underway by immigration officers, police reported. A score or more laborers who are believed to have entered this country illegally were being sought here, it was indicated.

A lead that the supposedly alien workers were here came Monday when police picked up a Mexican man for questioning. He admitted being an alien here illegally and told of a number of others in the district.

Police called immigration authorities in San Pedro, who were conducting the round-up.

Leaving Monday, June 18, for a two-week vacation trip to Mount Shasta, Calif., is Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tuttle, 1947 Reynolds drive and their fourteen-year-old son, Howard.
