City Organizes Boys' Touch Football League

With plans now being completed for the boys touch football leagues, co-sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department and the Y.M.C.A., league meetings have been scheduled for next week, according to Elmer "Red" Moon, city athletic director and Milt Isbell, executive secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

Two divisions will be formed, the three leagues of the city: Juniors, 13 to 14 years of age, and Midgets, 12 years of age and under. Any boy who has not reached his 15th birthday prior to Labor Day, Sept. 3, shall be eligible to play in the Juniors division. Any boy who has not reached his 13th birthday prior to the same date shall be eligible for the Midget division.

MEETING DATES

Organization meetings of the leagues are scheduled as follows: Central, 4 p. m. Monday, Oct. 1, at Greenwood School and Torrance Park; Northern League, 4 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 2, at McMaster Park (174th and Yukon) and Southern League, 4 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 3, at Walteria Park.

All games are scheduled to start at 4 p.m. with schedules to be announced at a later date. The Central League will play at Torrance Park or Greenwood School, the Northern League will play at McMaster Park (174th and Yukon) and the Southern League at Walteria Park.
