

Prayer Sermon Scheduled Sun.

The second in a series of sermons on "Prayer" will be preached on Sunday morning by Rev. Clarence E. Miller of the First Methodist Church of Torrance. Rev. Miller will use as his theme: "Jesus Prays for His Disciples".

The Methodist Church in Torrance is in a period of preparation for the United Methodist Evangelistic Advance which will be in operation from Nov. 11 to 18th, with all the Methodist churches within a radius of 50 miles of Los Angeles participating.

This evangelistic campaign will combine special services at the church during the week each night with visitation in the homes.

Board Picks Six Workers

October was a busy hiring month for the Torrance Board of Education. Approval was given by the Board to employ five new classified workers during this month and one during September. Total wages for these workers alone, it was disclosed, are estimated to total more than $15,000 a year. This is almost $1,300 per month. The average wages per man employed is $213.

The six men hired were Juan M. Alderete, Joseph S. Plase, and Jack O. Gill to serve as groundmen. Dale G. Barr was employed as a custodian. Albert B. Clements took over duties as a maintenance man.

Charibel N. Ward will be employed as a cafeteria worker. All workers will have to pass a probationary period. They have been hired for the current school year 1952 to 1953.
