Pfc. Hebert Guides Traffic in Korea

WITH I CORPS IN KOREA—Pfc. R. D. Hebert, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hebert, 532 West Magnolia street, Inglewood, has recently been assigned to the 622nd Military Police Company in Korea which is now engaged in regulating traffic and maintaining security outposts along I Corps' main supply routes.

Hebert entered the army in November, 1950, and received his basic training at Fort Ord. Then he attended the military police school at Camp Roberts, after which he was sent to Korea where he joined his present unit.

Optometrist Elected to College Board of Trustees

Dr. Kenneth R. Douglas of Inglewood was elected to the board of trustees of the Los Angeles College of Optometry, Dr. Ernest Hutchinson, president of the college, announced last week. Dr. Douglas also is a member of the corporation of this institution.

Dr. Roy Swain, formerly of Inglewood, was elected chairman of the board and has appointed Dr. Douglas to serve as chairman of the Clinic committee of the college. Dr. Douglas is past president of the Los Angeles County Optometric Association and at present is the chairman of the Occupational Vision committee of the California Optometric Association. He also served as president of the Inglewood Rotary Club and the Inglewood 20-30 Club.
