

Evangelist Advance In Progress Locally

The Methodist United Evangelistic Advance is in progress in all Methodist Churches in and around Los Angeles. Over 300 local Methodist Ministers and outstanding leaders from California, Oregon, Washington and from the East are working together in conducting special preaching services in all these Methodist Churches, while each night teams of laymen are going out into homes to visit prospective members.

According to the compilation of reports from the various churches there was a total attendance at Methodist Churches in this area on Sunday of approximately 44,900. Approximately 2,000 laymen are going out every night in the visitation, securing hundreds of commitments.

WILLIAMS DIRECTS

Each day from 9 to 12:30 o'clock all of the cooperating ministers are meeting in the First Methodist Church in Los Angeles for worship and for inspirational instruction and technical training. The Evangelistic Advance is directed by Dr. Harry Williams, of the General Board of Evangelism of The Methodist Church. Among the outstanding leaders, according to Rev. Miller, minister of the local church, are Bishop William C. Martin, Dr. G. Ernest Thomas, and Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, from Detroit Michigan.

VICTORY RALLY

At the local Methodist Church, Rev. Theodore Brook, from the First Methodist Church in Fillmore, is preaching each evening up to and including Friday. The climax to this great Evangelistic Advance will come on Sunday with a Victory Rally at the Hollywood Bowl. The local Methodist church plans to have approximately 5 chartered buses with 200 people attending, according to a statement by Rev. Miller. Rev. Miller will be back in the pulpit of the local Methodist Church again on Sunday morning.
