Browne Market

(Continued from Page One) "When do you think you'll have a need to expand, Mr. Browne?" asked Bolas. BROWNE REPLIES: "Now," said Browne. "Immediately."

Petitions Ready

(Continued from Page One) area are enthusiastic about the move. They want to annex to Torrance in order to become a part of Torrance Unified School District, to get better police and fire protection, and to have the benefits of local municipal government.

Several efforts to join Gardena have failed in the past, it was said, due principally to the fact that Gardena is in Los Angeles City School District.

"This movement is going ahead, and we hope that the attitude on the City Council will have changed by the time the petitions for annexation are ready," Draie said.

Vets Put Over DAV Campaign

Appreciation of the public's generous response to this year's Disabled American Veterans Forget-Me-Not Campaign was expressed today by Commander H. G. Montoya, South Bay Chapter No. 92.

"The good to which the money will be put should gratify every purchaser of blue flowers of remembrance," said Commander Montoya.
