Sciarottas Announce Double Engagement

Two popular Torrance girls this week announced their engagement to two brothers. Parents of the girls and the brothers will get together for an engagement dinner tomorrow evening.

Ann Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar H. Olson, revealed her engagement to Frank Sciarotta last Saturday night at the installation ceremony of the Torrance Chapter of Job's Daughters.

Barbara Mondor, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Mondor, announced that on the same evening she became betrothed to Ross Sciarotta, Jr.

Both grooms-elect are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sciarotta, Sr., 1630 Beach avenue, Torrance.

Ann and Frank do not plan to be wed for a year. They have, however, gone ahead and purchased a home in North Torrance.

Ann is a senior at Torrance high school, where she is a member of Tartar Ladies and Tri-High Y. She is head majorette for the school. Ann has been a dancing teacher for the past three years and plans to continue teaching after she is married. She resides with her parents at 1617 Cota avenue.

Frank, who will be 21 soon, is employed as a painter in Avalon Village, and is going to Long Beach City College at night. He is studying music and plans to teach when he graduates.

Barbara and Ross have set no definite date for their marriage. Barbara is a senior at Torrance high school. She belongs to the Student Council, G.A.A., Girls League, Scholarship Society, and Tartar Ladies. Her home is at 2765 Gramercy Place.

Ross graduated from Torrance high school.

All Quiet With Cinderella Girl

Martha Morris DeVigier seems to have slipped back into teenage obscurity. Not much has been heard or seen of this short-time bride in recent days. It doesn't even look as if Prince Charming is going to retrieve his erstwhile marriage-mate with a glass slipper.

Mrs. C. R. Morris, mother of the girl, said yesterday that nothing else has happened in the case, and the suit that is on file in San Francisco is still being held in abeyance.

No indication of the whereabouts of P. C. Roland DeVigier is available at this time.

The Lions will hold their annual Children's party Dec. 20 in the Torrance Civic Auditorium. Lion President Paul Diamond disclosed that this affair is spearheaded by the Lions in cooperation with the City of Torrance.
