

ROSE QUEEN—Nancy Thorne, 17-year-old, blonde, blue-eyed Pasadena City College student, will reign as queen of the 63rd annual Tournament of Roses parade next New Year's Day at Pasadena. Queen Nancy will ride at the head of the parade which will include 62 floral floats, 20 bands and 200 horses.

To foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent
Americanism

—From the Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion

One of the continuing tasks of The American Legion has been to combat the spread of alien ideologies that were brought to this land in the wake of World War I and may again follow in the wake of World War II. By ceaseless vigilance to oppose those who are un-American, by purposeful education to guide those who are American; these are the Americanism aims of the Legion.

AMERICANISM is an idealism concerning our American way of life. It implies a sincere faith and belief in a democratic, representative form of government with certain checks and balances to prevent usurpation of power that might impair our government of the people, by the people, and for the people. It stands for individual rights, fair play, tolerance, justice, recognition of individual ability, and reasonableness in all phases of American living. We cannot condone Americanism as sponsored by intolerant secret societies. Neither can we accept as the American way selfish, unjust practices of powerful groups in our industrial life.

We must guard with all our energy the human rights guaranteed by the Constitution. Destructive theories fostered by foreign money and influence aimed at the possible weakening or overthrow of our form of government must be combatted with all legitimate means. Liberty under the law must not be extended to protect license, anarchy, or treason under the law.

In our efforts to combat un-American influence, we must not, however, become such self-righteous super-patriots that we interpret those who argue for orderly change as un-American and thereby injure a loyal fellow citizen.

Let the chapel bells ring out loud and clear, and let each sweet note carry our wishes for a joyous Christmas . . . and a New Year filled with promise.
