

NEW TYPE ALARM — Supervisor Raymond V. Darby (right) examines revolutionary new air raid alarm with inventor Vic Chatten of Torrance. The mechanism was offered to the County by Chatten as a solution to the present confusing system of whistles and sirens.

Bernard Opens Doors of New Shoe Store

Completely modern, inside and out, and stocked with complete displays of top quality, name brand shoes is the new Bernard's Shoe Store, at 1315 Sartori avenue.

Located just two doors north of the former shop, the new store is the latest word in comfort and convenience.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lee, owners of the store, first opened their business in Torrance nine years ago. "We have grown with the town," Bernard said, "and will continue to present the same fine shoes and courteous service in our new store."

De Liso Debs and Naturalizers for women, Florsheim and Jarman for men, are some of the many quality brands that are being displayed in the new store. The popular Buster Brown shoes for children may also be seen there.

SGT. STAN RUSSELL

Soldier Home From Korea

Sgt. Stan Russell returned last week after a year at the combat front in Korea. He served with the 1st Cavalry division.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Russell of 126 W. 189th St., Russel was first inducted three years ago. He trained at Fort Ord, and then was stationed in Japan with the army of occupation.

He was reintroduced in March, 1951, and was shipped directly to Korea.

The Russells have two daughters, Eileen, 13, and Mrs. John Reynolds.
