Iris Display in Alondra Park May 3 and 4

Local gardening enthusiasts will have an opportunity to display one variety of spring-time flowers when the American Iris Society and the Southern California Iris Society in co-operation with the Los Angeles county recreation department, sponsor an Iris show to be held at Alondra Park, 3535 West Redondo Beach boulevard, Saturday, May 3, 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday, May 4, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The first such show of its kind to be held in the South Bay area will feature every kind of iris, blooms, plants, seedlings and miniatures.

Judges will be chosen from the official list of Accredited Judges of the American Iris Society, and prizes will be awarded in all classifications.

The S.P.C.A. mounted posse, a group dedicated to animal rescue work, will appear at the show on Sunday at 2 p.m.

There will be a special exhibit of iris seedlings hybridized by 11-year-old Phillip Edinger.

PTA Sees How School Safety Council Works

The Halldale Avenue P-TA held its Father's Night meeting last Thursday at the Normandie recreation center.

Mrs. Mildred Fletcher, supervisor of elementary grades for Los Angeles, was guest speaker. Her topic was "Progressing with Children."

Mrs. Ann Conner, Halldale teacher, presented her school safety council. The council held a mock meeting with parents acting as the defendants who had broken safety rules. In this way parents were shown how a school safety council operates, it was reported.

Halldale's executive board meets today at 9:30 at the school.

The P-TA of the school extends an invitation to everyone to attend the "May Festival" at school tomorrow.

Legion Acts to Halt Fund Stop

Drastic cuts in appropriations for VA services recently voted by the House of Representatives means "throwing away the keys to 50 veteran's hospitals" the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans warned today.

The situation is so critical that Legion and DAV have called special conferences, under T. O. Kraebel, National Rehabilitation Chief of the Legion and Francis M. Sullivan, National Director of the Legion, in an all-out effort to stop threatened curtailment of services to needy veterans, officials of the Torrance American Legion revealed this week.
