Judge Bridge Assigned to Local Court

Notice was received today from a State Courts assignment division that Judge Collamer A. Bridge of Hermosa Beach, has been assigned to occupy the bench in the Inglewood City Courts, September 3 to October 5. Judge Bridge is a veteran jurist of the South Bay area and has, over the years, served on all the judicial benches in the area.

Discussing this new assignment, Judge Bridge stated that he has always been pleased to serve in the Courts of the City of Inglewood. Judge Bridge has served in the Inglewood area when Inglewood was a part of the South Bay Judicial Township and has since served in the city jurisdiction.

New King Bill Hits Tax Holes

Representative Cecil R. King, Dem., Calif., chairman of the King Subcommittee investigating the administration of the Internal Revenue laws, today introduced into the House of Representatives a bill designed to plug tax loopholes and provide criminal penalties for so-called "tax influence" peddlers.

In Washington, King said the bill will correct many of the evils which his subcommittee unearthed in its recent tax investigations.

give reliable information. "Of course, there are those persons who actually have appeared before a judge as plaintiff or defendant. They aren't a position to give information as to the ability, courtesy and fairness of the judge. Business associates and neighbors can give testimony as to the character, personality and fitness of a judge."
