group as health chairman, news-ette, ways and means committee-woman, and vice-president.

Mrs. Howey's two children, Terry and Barbara, are students at the Walteria School, whose new buildings were completed in 1951.

This unit of the Torrance Council dates back to 1925.

FERN AVE.-GREENWOOD P-TA

Fern Ave. School first held classes in a bungalow until the present school was built in 1932. The P-TA was organized in 1933. This unit adopted the name Fern Ave.-Greenwood P-TA in 1951, when the new Greenwood School was completed.

Mrs. John R. Patrick, who serves as president of the combined P-TA, has been active in P-TA work for eight years. She has served as room-mother, parent education chairman, corresponding secretary, and first vice-president.

Mrs. Patrick's son Jim, 12, is enrolled at Greenwood School, and another son, Tommy, 7, attends Fern Ave. School.

SEASIDE SCHOOL P-TA

Seaside Elementary School P-TA was formed in 1949. However, until the completion of the Seaside School in 1950, youngsters from that area attended Walteria Elementary School.

Mrs. Loren C. Edman, president of this group, is a former school teacher and the mother of six children. Two of her children, Craig and Judy, attend Torrance High School, while Frank, John, Chris, and Larry, are enrolled at Seaside School. The family attends the First Lutheran Church of Torrance.

TORRANCE HIGH SCHOOL P-TA

Mrs. I. O. Kasten, who presides over Torrance High School P-TA, has been active in Torrance P-TA work for ten years. She has served as historian, treasurer, financial secretary, and registration chairman.

The High School P-TA was founded in 1933, under the Los Angeles Tenth District. The school was built in 1917.

Mrs. Kasten's son is a junior at the high school, and two of her children graduated from this school.

MADRONA AVE. SCHOOL P-TA

Latest group to join the Torrance Council of P-TAs is the Madrona Ave. P-TA, which was formed early this year.

Mrs. Thomas Smiley is the president of the group. This unit is getting under way now with an active program of P-TA work for the school and the community.

Films Become a Valuable Training Aid to Schoolwork

Motion pictures are a tremendous teaching aid and more and more schools are using them regularly to illustrate classroom projects.

These movies range from simple guides showing manufacturing processes, to fire safety education, to human relation problems, and mental health.

They are made available for school showings under the supervision of the National Advisory Committee on the Use of Motion Pictures in Education.

Other motion picture studies are presented for school showings by the Commission on Human Relations of the Progressive Education Association, a Rockefeller Foundation institution.

If their local schools do not have motion picture studies, parents can work through the Parent Teachers' Association or other civic groups to obtain them.

TEEN 'N TWEEN FIND FASHION NEWS IN SCHOOL GOING WEAR

This season Fashion is a fairly godmother to the sub-teen and teen, creating styles that make going back to school doubly exciting!

Coed clothes for fall, 1952, are spirited, colorful, and every bit as fashion-conscious as those of her glamour-girl sister.

Designers have used fabric as a magic wand in lending enchantment to the back-to-books wardrobe. There are new textures in beloved corduroy—a cross-hatch, basket weave-wale achieved by right angle cutting, winter versions of smart, rugged denim, wonderful tweed jersey, cotton tweeds, shimmering iridescent taffetas, washable Orlon and wool fabrics, and smart woolens in flannels and colorful plaids.

Color will perform its magic in the young wardrobe, too! The favorites are hot pink, raspberry, the bright blues, purple, softer grays, turquoise, and black-and-white combinations in the tweeds, corduroys, and tweedy jerseys.

Go-together separates are important for school and casual wear. Completely coordinated groups are being shown in printed or tweed corduroy skirts, jackets, and weskits with a bright cotton blouse for a sharp accent.

Thurs., Sept. 4, 1952

Quilted denim separates are rating rave notices, too.

Dressy separates are sure to be favored by teen-agers for they are smarter than ever in the new silhouettes, unusual fabrics, and exciting colors. Nipped-waist jackets with black velveteen revers paired with a full, full skirt will catch the eye of young glamour girls. Belted middy jackets and hip yoke pleated skirts of corduroy are being shown in gay colors. Middy blouses teamed with full skirts are fall news in separates.

Jersey is all-important in blouses for the teens, but it is a new textured jersey. Cleverly-styled cotton blouses are runners-up as favorites for classroom wear.

When the teen-ager dresses up she will wear fashions with a new softer look. This is achieved through the use of softer fabrics. Again, it's the full skirt with either an Empire or middy waistline. Dress-up fashions are shown in soft wool jersey, crepe, taffeta, velveteen, and silk shantung.

Coats for the teen group are in the casual pendulum shape, styled in fleeces, nubby wool tweeds, curly-surface Orlon and wool fabrics, and alpacos. The leading colors are bright blues, raspberry, charcoal gray, russet tones, and coral reds.

All-in-all, there's fashion excitement and wardrobe magic ahead for school-bound teen-agers!
