

Executive Class Offered at Harbor

A one-semester evening course in Foremanship Training will be offered at Harbor Junior College during the fall semester beginning September 15, Kenneth R. Williams, chairman of the Business Education Division, said today.

The course is designed especially for foremen and supervisors of local industries and governmental agencies, and for persons anticipating an assignment to such duties in the near future, Williams added.

The class, which will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m., will be conducted in conference style. Topics of discussion and study will include current practices and procedures in such areas as Responsibilities and Qualities of Foremen, Improved Employee Attitudes and Job Interest, Grievances, Employee Rating, Job Analysis, Job Training, and Self-Improvement.

Persons interested in the class can enroll during the fall semester registration period, September 15-17, either during the day from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., or during the evening from 6 to 8 p.m.
