ARLENE DAHL AND
The Magic Oil

Aladdin made magic by rubbing an oil lamp.
Modern magic is made by refining oil and making motion picture film from it.

The movie people make magic by using this film to give you Scheherazade or Cleopatra or the modern loveliness of Arlene Dahl. With today's Aladdin's lamp a theatre becomes the streets of burning Rome or the troubled seas of the Caribbean.

Sometimes we think that helping to make America happier through the movies is just as important as making it run by supplying most of its energy, which oil also does.

There's something magical too in the way that fabrics and cosmetics and other wonders can be drawn from an oil well to help make Arlene, and all women, more beautiful. Thus the exquisite designs of Arlene Dahl use the magic of nylon as she presents the unbelievable loveliness of her new "Caribbean" line of lingerie.
