

And No One Was Injured . . .

—Press Photo
Fenders, bumpers, hoods, grills, and engines all took a terrific beating in a four-car collision at the intersection of Main St. and East Road, but not one person was injured. In the top picture, the two cars that are nosing their way into the Club Room were just sitting there minding their own business, when the Studebaker shown in the second picture ricocheted off them. The Studebaker had just tangled with the Ford seen in picture three. The Ford, which reportedly caused the accident by running a boulevard stop, suffered the greatest punishment. James Thompson of Long Beach was driver of the Ford. Dick Young of Wilmington was pilot of the Studebaker, and the two cars entering the tavern belong to Ray Lyon of Torrance and Ray Almanaz of Los Angeles.

Judge Otto Willett Receives Wide Endorsement in Area

Judge Otto B. Willett's headquarters today announced that Willett has been unanimously endorsed for the office of South Bay Municipal Judge by all resident, elected and appointed city judges in the South Bay court area, other than the two candidates.

City Officials Support

Judge Willett has received the unqualified support of the following Judges: City Judge Sam G. Austin, Redondo Beach; City Judge Harry W. Sturges, Jr., Palms Verdes Estates; City Judge Elmo L. Morris, Gardena, and City Judge Collamer A. Bridge, Hermosa Beach. In addition, he has received the endorsement of the following resident City Attorneys in the area, namely: City Attorney Frank L. Perry, Redondo Beach, and City Attorney James M. Hall and Donald Findlay, Torrance.

Also, numerous prominent attorneys in the municipal court area have endorsed Willett, namely: William E. MacFaden, Auten F. Bush, L. E. Reynolds, Arnold M. Cowan, John P. Barry, William G. Bolton, Frank W. Clark, Jr., Eric Rafter, Dudley W. Gray, Charles Glass, Jr., Albert Isen, Irving Lessin, Charlton A. Mewborn, Thos. W. Fredericks, Judge Bernard A. Lawler, Donald J. Hitchcock, Leola Buck Kellogg, Boris S. Woolley, John E. McCall and Lowell L. Dryden.

Benefit Citizens

Says Judge Collamer A. Bridge: "As lawyers and judges we believe Otto B. Willett has outstanding judicial temperament and will conduct his court for the benefit of society and our citizens and not for revenue purposes."

The veteran South Bay judge and attorney, known throughout California for his advanced ideas and practices in the handling of juvenile and traffic cases, is campaigning for the South Bay Municipal Court office on a "Fair and equal justice for all" platform.

Judge Willett, the father of two children, places great emphasis upon the responsibility of our courts regarding juvenile offenders.

"We must study and gain counsel," says Willett, "from church,

Music Enjoyment Aim of Torrance Pops Orchestra

The Torrance Pops Orchestra which is part of the free Adult Education program being offered at Torrance Evening High School is proving very popular, according to Patton McNaughton, director of the group. "Emphasis this year is being placed on music as an enjoyable experience rather than on practicing for public performance," Mr. McNaughton stated today, "and we find the response to this idea very gratifying."

Local Merchant Appears on TV

Ellen's Shop, considered one of the leading wood fibre flower designers in this area, has been invited to exhibit a special arrangement on a full-hour television show, proprietor Ellen M. Wright at 23433 S. Western Ave., Torrance, announces.

Dogwood Television Lamp floral arrangement will be displayed during the KTTV Channel 11 telecast from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday, November 13, originating in Temple City, Calif. The program will feature Aleene, a recognized authority in the field of floral design.

Torrance Hallowe'en Fetes Parade

Ghosts, witches, and hobgoblins will be the order of the day tomorrow evening at McMaster Park when the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association stages a giant Hallowe'en party for youngsters of the area.

According to Mrs. William Wright, general chairman of the event, the park clubhouse will be decorated like Hallowe'en Hollow, and there will be a guessing booth and tables for serving refreshments to the young merry-makers.

At 7:30 p.m. there will be a costume parade. There will be four age groups and various classifications for prize awards in each group. Mayor Mervin Schwab, Judge Otto Willett, Recreation Director Frank Carpenter, City Manager George Stevens, and Chamber of Commerce Secretary Dale Isenberg will judge the contests, Mrs. Wright disclosed.

Jack White, president of the organization, will be host and master of ceremonies. Mrs. Ilene Allison and Clint Beedin are in charge of decorations. Other committee heads include: Mesdames Margaret Garrity and Paul Clayton, refreshments; Mesdames Ruth Brooks and I. E. Winther, guessing; Burt Johnson, parade; Everett Carlstrom, parking; and Mrs. Ralph McBee, gift donations.

A LETTER ABOUT CECIL KING FROM A GREAT AMERICAN AND TRUE REPUBLICAN

LAW OFFICES JOSEPH SCOTT SUITE 785-791 • 1151 SOUTH BROADWAY LOS ANGELES 15 • CALIFORNIA

OCTOBER 23, 1952

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

MY ATTENTION HAS BEEN CALLED TO THE CAMPAIGN OF CONGRESSMAN KING, AND TO THE STRICTURES MADE UPON HIM ALIGNING HIM WITH SOME SYMPATHY OR ATTACHMENT WITH THE COMMUNIST PHILOSOPHY.

CONGRESSMAN KING IS A DEMOCRAT, AND I AM A REPUBLICAN, BUT UNLESS WE ARE GOING TO WRECK THE WHOLE SYSTEM OF AMERICAN POLITICS, WE MUST RESIST ANY ATTEMPT AT DOWN-RIGHT FALSIFICATION OF A MAN'S RECORD AND HIS MOTIVES. I WAS RAISED IN THAT SCHOOL IN THE EARLY YEARS OF THIS PUEBLO, NEARLY SIXTY YEARS AGO. UNITED STATES SENATOR STEPHEN M. WHITE, A DEMOCRAT AND GOVERNOR HENRY T. GATE, A REPUBLICAN, WERE BOSOM FRIENDS. THE LATE LAMENTED ISIDORE B. DOCKWEILER, ONE OF THE FAITHFUL FOLLOWERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY, AND MYSELF, LIKEWISE WERE LIFELONG FRIENDS.

I DETEST THE SPIRIT CREEPING INTO OUR POLITICAL LIFE THAT YOU HAVE TO LIE ABOUT A MAN IF YOU WANT TO GET ANYWHERE IN THE FIGHT AGAINST HIM. THEREFORE, I DEPLORE THE ACTIVITIES OF CERTAIN CRITICS OF CONGRESSMAN KING AS REPRESENTING ANY SYMPATHY OR ATTACHMENT TO THE COMMUNIST PHILOSOPHY, WHICH IS A BAR TO HIM AS IT IS TO EVERY GOOD AMERICAN.

HE IS A GOOD STALWART BELIEVER IN THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE AMERICAN FOUNDING FATHERS, AND WE SHOULD STIMULATE THAT SPIRIT IN EVERY MAN HOLDING PUBLIC OFFICE BE HE DEMOCRAT OR REPUBLICAN.

SINCERELY, Joseph Scott

CITIZEN'S COMMITTEE FOR CECIL KING FOR CONGRESS ROBERT L. CHAMBERS, CHAIRMAN 3400 Strand, Manhattan Beach
