Theater Guild to Have Rosalind Russell, Nov. 9

Rosalind Russell returns to the U. S. Steel Hour Sunday, Nov. 9, to co-star with Mel Ferrar in the tense drama, "Magnificent Obsession," to be broadcast via stations of the NBC network at 5:30 p.m. (PST).

"The Theatre Guild On The Air" adaptation of Lloyd Douglas' highly successful novel will have Miss Russell in the role of Helen Hudson, an attractive widow who builds up an intense dislike for the youth she believes is responsible for her husband's death.

Miss Russell's performance in a dramatic portrayal is in sharp contrast to the more numerous comic characterizations that have earned for her the title of Hollywood's "Queen of sophisticated comedy."

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

'The Hasty Heart' To Be Presented At El Camino

EL CAMINO COLLEGE—"The Hasty Heart" by John Patrick, which is "one of the ten top plays of Broadway," according to Burnett Ferguson, theater arts instructor, has been selected as the Fall Play at El Camino College.

"The Hasty Heart," Mr. Ferguson said, "is a human, moving story about GI's of many nations who are brought together in a field hospital."

Rehearsals, under Mr. Ferguson's direction, are now under way, and most of the spots on the cast have been filled. Announcement of the full cast is to be made later.

Movie Shown at Church for the Children's Hour

Winners in the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored essay contest "Why Every Eligible American Should Vote on Nov. 4" were announced this week by Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the chamber.

Winner in the boys' section was Dan Mayers. Ellen Koehn took top honor in the girls' division. Both essayists will receive a $25 defense bond for their compositions, Isenberg stated.

Both Dan and Ellen are senior students at Torrance High School. Dan, who is center on the Tartar football team, was president of last year's junior class and has served as commissioner of athletics on the Student Council.

Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBride of 17110 Ardath Ave., has been active in Student Council, is a Song Queen, and a leader in GAA activities.

A total of 80 Torrance High School students competed in the essay contest, according to Isenberg. Judges were Judge Otto Willett, Mayor Mervin M. Schwab, Councilman Nick Draie, Judge John Shidler, Don Rice, Milton Isbell, and George Powell.
