Home Yule Trim Contest Opens Dec. 10

Originality of theme and adaptability of decorations to the surroundings will be the basis on which homes entered in the Christmas decoration contest will be judged, according to Mrs. Wilfred Stevens, president of the Torrance Terrace Garden Club.

The garden club and the Torrance Chamber of Commerce are jointly sponsoring the trimming competition. Judges, all members of the garden club, will begin viewing houses on Dec. 10. Final decision and winners will be announced on Monday, December 22, Mrs. Stevens disclosed.

One early entry will be chosen for photographic presentation in the Torrance Press.

First and second prizes, donated by the garden club, will be awarded to top winners.

Persons desiring to enter the contest may call Mrs. Minot Rugg, 2433-J; Mrs. Stevens, 2458-R, or the Chamber of Commerce, 125.

Stork Hits Fire Dept.

The stork struck at the homes of members of the Fire Dept. twice last week, ending a bet that had been waged by two expectant fathers, Firemen Donald Davis and Jim Wass.

Jim came out the winner of 25 cents, because his son, James Clinton Jr., was born two hours and 13 minutes before Don's daughter, Susan Marie.

The Wass infant weighed 7 pounds, 15 ounces when he was born at Los Angeles Methodist Hospital. He has a sister, six-year-old Jonathan, and a brother Jeffrey, age 4. Their residence is at 3252 Winlock Road. Wass has been a fireman for four months.

Susan Marie Davis weighed in at 8 pounds, 15 ounces when she arrived at San Pedro Community Hospital. Steven, her brother, is four years old. Davis has been a Torrance fireman for two and a half years.

Land Bought for Crenshaw Link

Authorization was granted by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors Tuesday for payment of $800 for property located on the east side of 280th Street in Torrance, for extension and improvement of Crenshaw Blvd., it was disclosed by Supervisor Ray Darby.

Construction is presently going on from Pacific Coast Highway to Lomita Blvd., extending Crenshaw which is planned to extend eventually into the Palos Verdes Hills.

Even if you do not live in a big city, you have a job to do in Civil Defense. Contact your local CD director—find out what you can do help keep this nation free and strong.
