DECEMBER BRIDE—A double-ring, candlelight ceremony recently joined the former Miss Ann Olson and Frank Sciarrotta in matrimony. Rites were performed by Rev. John Taylor at the First Methodist Church.

LOMITA SOLOIST HEARD AT CONCERT TUESDAY

The Harbor Symphony Orchestra will play its second concert of the season next Tuesday evening at 8:30 p.m., at Harbor Junior College with Robert Marsteller conducting.

The evening's program includes "Rosamunde Overture," Shubert; "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor," Handel; and "A Hymn of Thanksgiving," arranged by Hans Kindler, according to Mrs. J. C. Miller, president of the sponsoring Harbor Symphony Association.

Marsteller chose William Bergsma's "Paul Buyan Suite" for a modern touch. In keeping with the season, the orchestra will play the overture from the "Messiah" by Handel.

James Butterfield, of Lomita, winner of the Harbor Symphony Association music award last year will be featured as bassonist in the "Concerto in B Flat" by Mozart, and John Starcic of San Pedro will play the English horn solos in Dvorak's Largo movement from the "New World Symphony."

Marsteller, who rehearses the orchestra each Tuesday evening at the college as a class, is also first trombonist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, along with lecturing in music at USC.
