REALTY CONFAB—Representatives of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board, the Chamber of Commerce and the Adult Education Service got together this week to lay final plans for a ten-week free lecture series to be presented under the auspices of the three organizations, beginning Wednesday, Feb. 18. Standing, left to right, are Dale Isenberg, Chamber executive secretary; Bob Clayton, Realty Board education chairman; Vern Sheblak, Adult School director, and James Decker and Mrs. Gretchen Earle, realtors. Seated are Realtors Harry Peterson and Dick Miller, Howard J. Percy, president of the Realty Board; Mrs. Grace Hinshaw, secretary of the multiple listing service; Gerald Alter, realtor, and Mrs. Edith Smith, vice-president of the Board.

Real Estate Lecture Class Offered Here

Ray D. Westcott, chief deputy of the Los Angeles office of the California State division of real estate, will be the first speaker in the ten-week real estate lecture course being offered here jointly by the School of Adult Education, the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board, and the Chamber of Commerce. The free course is designed especially for real estate brokers and salespeople, property owners, and persons preparing for license examinations, according to Dale Isenberg, Chamber executive secretary. Meetings will be held each Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30, beginning on Feb. 18. The classes will be held in the Torrance High School cafeteria on Plaza del Amo Blvd. Topics to be covered in the course include California real estate law, property ownership, mortgages, deeds, leases, appraising, financing, real estate taxes, escrow procedure, land descriptions, business opportunities, concluding with real estate trends and forecast.

Rag and Paper Drive Slated

A rag and paper drive is planned by the 186th Street P-TA for Feb. 17 and 18, it was announced today. The drive is one of a series of fund raising programs devised by the ways and means committee, it was reported.

For 1953... None so New as Pinin Farina's Latest Masterpiece

Most Beautiful Cars of Our Time

There's none so new as Nash! That's the enthusiastic verdict of millions who have seen and admired the new 1953 Nash Ambassador and Statesman Airflytes. See and drive them—you'll agree. You'll see none so new in beauty. No other with these swift, clean continental lines. No other with the glamour of Pinin Farina styling. No other with so wide a windshield or rear window. You'll drive none so new in performance. No other but the Nash Ambassador offers a Super Jetfire engine, plus the new custom-power option, the "Le Mans" Dual Jetfire engine . . . and a new kind of Power Steering. In the Statesman there's a new Powerflyte engine. There's none so new in comfort. No other with seats so wide, both front and rear. No other with Airliner Reclining Seats, Twin Beds, or Weather Eye Conditioned Air System. In your next car get the best, the newest in motoring. See your Nash dealer and drive the world's most beautiful, most modern cars—the new 1953 Airflytes.
